THE CAMPAIGN.

BRILLIANT TURNOUT LAST NIGHT

Nine Thousand Voters in Line of Procession!

INTENSE ENTHUSIASM OF THE MASSES.

Decorations and Fire Works.

HOW FREEMEN RALLIED AROUND THE OLD BANNER.

Allegheny County Good for 10,000 Republican Majority.

THE CONVENTION TO-DAY, &c., &c., &c.

The torchlight procession last night was a success beyond the expectation of the most sanguine and enthusiastic. Never before in this section of the country has a campaign been marked with such a brilliant and enlivening procession after night than was that last night which occupied one hour and twenty minutes in winding its way past a given point. Old and young, stout and weak, soldier and citizen, were out in their might and contributed to the glory of the occasion. The brilliancy of the affair is but the fore-runner of the more brilliant and more substantial evidence to be furnished at the ballot box in October that we of '68 have not degenerated from our high standard of loyalty of '60 and '64; but gaining strength with returning years, stand solid, shoulder to shoulder, in the ranks of the Great Captain, twelve thousand stronger than our disheartened foe. Allegheny county, Western Pennsylvania, aye, the entire Commonwealth, was honored in the occasion of last night, and we are only sorry that the loyal people of the entire North could not have been crowded into our city, to judge how Pittsburgh stands for Grant and Colfax, and with what enthusiasm they rally together for the principles for which a long and tedious war was waged.

Republicans! You sustained yourselves nobly last night, and struck terror into the hearts of your political adversaries. Keep the ball rolling. Turn out to-day in full force, and bury the hopes of the enemy which you murdered last night. The effect of our parade to-day and last night will be felt throughout the entire country when the fleet footed messenger of the wires bears the golden intelligence to every nook and corner of the land that old Allegheny county is marshaling her forces by thousands and preparing to furnish the majority that will turn the tide of election throughout the State and nation. As the song passed along the line last night was caught up and chanted till thousands of voices joined in its utterance, so will spread the watchword given to-day; and cheered by our example a whole army of hesitating undecided voters will march squarely into the Union camp and enlist under the leadership of the hero who was born to save the country twice. To-day

"We'll rally again to the standard we bore,
Our battle-fields crimson and gory,
Shouting "Hail to the Chief, who in freedom's fierce war,
Hath covered that banner with glory.

Then rally again, then rally again,
With the soldier and sailor and drummer,
And we will fight it out here
On the old Union line;
No odds if it takes us all summer."

THE NIGHT.

The equinoctial rains contributed much to dampen the general enthusiasm yesterday, light showers falling and dark clouds hovering over the city nearly all day long. At about five o'clock in the afternoon the sun burst forth and his bright beams seemed the signal for general preparation The loyal Republicans along the route at once set about to adorn and decorate their places of business and dwelling houses and before the shades of night set in the city wore a gala appearance it never before had known. The generosity of the Republicans in making creditable display was only equaled by the general good taste observed. The absence of vulgar mottoes and devices both in the decoration of buildings and in the line of procession was universally acknowledged and commend d, and spoke volumes in proof of the intelligence of the party under whose auspices the display was made.

Towards dusk the heavens again became threatening, but the clouds soon passed away and the stars peeped forth in token of fair and pleasant evening. A dry wind prevailed, and upon the whole no more favorable evening could have been desired for the display. From six o'clock the streets were noisy with the clattering of horses and the gathering of the clans. Through the very excellent arrangements of Chief Marshal Brown all confusion was avoided, and the different divisions formed at the places designated sharp at the time fixed. The Second Ward Artillery Corps fired the salute at the appointed moment, when the march was taken up.

Led by the Great Western Band, the procession started precisely at eight o'clock. Colonel James Browne, the Chief Marshal, didn't look as if he had the care of such an army as marched behind him, but the order and celerity of formation testified to the capability of the commander, and the efficiency of his aids. The Chief of Staff, Colonel William B. Neeper, and the Adjutant General, James S. Patterson, supported Colonel Browne. Then, mounted on their fiery chargers, came as

This Division was one of the most interesting of the whole procession, as it contained most of the visiting companies, of which the following is as perfect a list as, during the excitement, we were able to obtain. If we have missed any, it is because of the difficulty in obtaining the names and particulars of such a host of loyal associations:

Elizabeth Tanner Club, carrying a two-sided transparency, and composed of over sixty men.

The Belle Vernon Grant and Colfax Club of about forty men.

A Grant Club of seventy-five men, carrying two beautiful silk flags, from Etna Borough.

The Sharpsburg Tanners had some sixty men in line, and carried some beautiful guidons and flags, with a banner on which were the mottoes: "We'll fight it out on the Maine line;" "If you want peace—Grant;" "We'll Seymour behind Grant."

The Brady's Bend Grant and Colfax Club, consisting of seventy-five men, carried a transparency with the portraits of Grant and Colfax.

The transparency of the Kittanning delegation, a Tanner Club of seventy-five men, attracted a good deal of attention on account of its aptness. It was an American eagle triumphantly swooping down on a dying Democratic rooster, and was well called "The Post's victories.

A Grant and Colfax Club from Franklin Springs, consisted of forty men.

The Sligo Union League, from Clarion county, carried a handsome transparency, with the following mottoes: 'Equal Rights for all men;" "Northern Rebels Vote for Seymour," "We'll fight it out on this line."

The Beaver County Grant regiment, consisting of about five hundred and fifty men, came up in an immense train of cars on the Fort Wayne Rai road, and was led by Col. Quay. It included the Rochester Grant and Colfax Club, of seventy men.

The Freedom Tanners, thirty-three men.

Beaver Falls Boys in Blue, numbering fifty-five.

The Bridgewater Grant and Colfax Club of seventy men.

The Smith's Ferry Tanners, fifty-one strong.

The Grant Club, from Ohio township, Beaver county, of forty men,

The New Brighton Boys in Blue, sixty strong.

Sixty members of the New Brighton Veterans, and a few companies whose names and numbers we were unfortunately unable to procure.

Then there was the Birmingham Grant and Colfax Club, one hundred and twenty-five men and a handsome national flag.

The East Birmingham Grant and Colfax Club were full one hundred strong, and had a wagon with a banner on which were the mottoes: "Loyal men shall rule;" and a picture of Seymour and the New York rioters, with the inscription, "Seymour and his friends, N. Y., July 4th, 1863."

We have rarely seen anything more striking than the Mount Washington Tanners as they with their flaming torches came winding down the road from Mount Washington to join the procession, and the gorgeous illumination of Water street reflected in the dark waters of the Monongahela must have looked sublime to them as they came. There were fifty of them and a Glee Club of twenty-five, all led by Capt. John Shaler. Their banner had for inscriptions and mottoes: "Mount Washington for Grant four to one." "Rebel Bonds; no transactions." Seymour and Blair stock—dull; tendency downwards." A portrait of General Grant with the words, "Honesty is the best policy."

The East Deer Township Club had a banner and thirty men.

We neglected to state that the East Birmingham Club bore on one side of its banner the patriotic motto of Shiller, which decorated the Rink at the late Sængerfest, and on the other side the same in English, "unworthy is the nation that will not sacrifice all for its honor."

Hon. Thomas Bigham and his family adorned the procession, driving in great state in the family chariot,

The Monongahela Borough Grant Club turned out thirty men.

The Temperanceville Mounted Tanners were fifty strong, and their transparency was decorated with Chinese lanterns and the inscriptions: "Grant, Colfax, Negley and Graham." "We will put down traitors North and South." A portrait of Grant on one side was riddled with stones, flung by enthusiastic Democrats, who did their duty nobly as far as rocking the Temperanceville boys went.

The Chartiers Mounted Tanners had fifty men, besides two wagons full, on which were two banners, one of which was shaped like a dwelling house and blazoned with these mottoes: "Democracy with all its Blairings can't make the people C More."

The Eclipse Glass Works sent a noble delegation of one hundred and twenty men, with a huge transparency shaped like a glass-house, ornamented with Chinese lanterns and patriotic letters.

One of the striking features about the parade was a huge wagon from Temperanceville containing the Goddess of Liberty and thirty-six States, represented by young girls dressed in the National colors and singing loyal songs. These young ladies had an escort of six gallant young cavaliers, whose horses as well as their riders seemed to appreciate the honor highly.

Those companies from the various boroughs and townships on the South side formed the Third Grand Division which was commanded by Capt. J. W. Ballentine, aided by the following gentlemen:

Birmingham—Capt. George S. Wood, Capt. E. G. Creahan, Lt. S. A. Barr, Lieut. Fred. Albright.
South Pittsburgh—David Jones, Dr. J. H. Roberts, Isaac Vilchenstein.
Monongahela—Nathan Brokaw.
West Pittsburgh—Adam Weaver, Louis Aurin.
Temperanceville—Dr. W. J. Smith, John S. Hunter, W. C. Taylor, F. C. Dorrington.
Chartiers—Capt. James L. Graham, Robert Hodgens
Union—Frank Couch, Wm. McDonald.

The Sewickley Delegation was a fine one, consisting of seventy-five Tanners who bore a banner with two of the most striking mottoes in the procession, they were "Grant and Cold Lead put Rebels Down, Grant and Cold Facts will keep them Down," and—

"Ulysses forever,
Horatio never,
And cursed be he
Who the Union would sever."

Between the First and Second Divisions came the gallant Firemen. We heard several of the men complaining that they had received such short notice that they had not had time to decorate their apparatus as handsomely as they would have liked, but we certainly cannot see how they could have made a finer display. The following companies were very fully represented and made a really brilliant show.

The Columbia Hook and Ladder Company of Allegheny, with their hook and ladder truck and hose carriage, all gorgeously decked, and a light wagon on which sat a young girl representing Columbia.

The Walton Hose Company of East Birmingham and the Mechanics Hose Company of Birmingham were there with their hose carriages, while from Pittsburgh proper came the Allegheny, Eagle, Neptune and Relief, with their glittering steamers and gracefully draped hose carriages, and the Rescue Hook and Ladder Company with its apparatus.

FOURTH GRAND DIVISION,

This division formed on Liberty street, the right resting on Water street, in command of the following officers:

Gen. CHARLES BARNES, Commanding.
Chief of Staff—Major W. B. HAZLEP.
Adjutant General—Capt. G. L. BRAUN.

AIDS.

Capt. A. W. Kredel,	Capt. J. H. Grenet,
Fred. Bellstine, Esq.,	Lt. Robt. Wilson,
Capt. W. E. Stewart,	Major W. H. Hope,
Alex. Wilson, Esq.,	Dennis Mullen, Esq.,
Capt. B. F. Jennings,	Lewis Shafer,
George Moul, Esq.,	W. K. McClintock,
George Parkin, Esq.,	R. S. Cameron,
Capt. Chas. A. Miller,	Sam'l B. Thompson,
Lt. W. D. Bois,	Capt. W. P. Herbert.
Lt. J. M. Kelsey,	Wm. C. Murray,

The Second ward, Allegheny, Grant and Colfax Club occupied the head of the division and was preceded by three wagons containing a number of the members of the club. A transparency containing the following mottoes was carried in the first wagon: "Second Ward, Allegheny, Grant and Colfax Club." "New York, July 5, 1863, I will take care of you and your friends. John A. Dix." "All hail the Green Mountain Boy's first gun." Portraits of Gen. Grant and the words, "Our country's defender and our next President."

One hundred men were in the ranks on foot, commanded by Capt. McDonald, and fifty men were mounted, under command of Capt. Nichols. The men were uniformed.

The Second ward, Allegheny, Artillery came next, with fifty men, commanded by Capt. Morrison. They were uniformed in white shirts and black caps and pants, and headed by the drum corps of the Sixth Pennsylvania Regiment.

They were followed by the Allegheny, Grant and Colfax Club, Capt. D. L. Smith commanding, and numbering two hundred men. The Club was uniformed with drab colored capes and caps. "Old Abe," the famous Eagle, occupied a prominent position directly at the head of the company. The transparencies were inscribed as follows: "Peace, law and order." "No man so humble that the flag of our country will not protect him." All nations and people must be free.

The Grant Hussars of the Third Ward, Allegheny, occupied the next position, forty in number, and uniformed with army blouses and bronze colored caps. In a wagon accompanying the Hussars, was a transparency containing the sentiment, "it is for the interest of the workingmen to vote for Grant and Colfax.

The Columbia Junior Hook and Ladder Company of the Fourth Ward, Allegheny, followed with their truck, commanded by Captain Jones, and numbering fifty members.

The Columbia Hose Company came next in order, with their carriage, which was tastefully trimmed with red, white and blue drapery and wreaths of flowers. In the carriage was seated Miss Eva Atkinson, who was neatly and beautifully dressed in red, white and blue colors, to represent Columbia.

The Fourth Ward Allegheny Minute Men next appeared, headed by the Washington Cornet Band. They numbered three hundred and fifty men, and were uniformed with red caps and capes, and commanded by Captain Callow. A Vivandière, dressed in a Zouave suit, complete, who marched at the head of this club, with his apparatus, attracted considerable attention.

They bore transparencies upon which were inscribed, "We Vote as we Shot." "Grant, Colfax and Peace." "The Fourth Ward Allegheny Good for 900 Majority." "Loyalty says Grant, Disloyalty Say-More."

The club was followed by six two horse wagons fil ed with men.

Next came the Gaant and Colfax Club of the Fifth Ward, Allegheny, commanded by Capt. Paulus, and numbering one hundred men, uniformed with drab colored capes and caps. There were ten transparencies, upon which were inscribed these mottoes: "Fifth ward Allegheny good for 300 majority." "The 'Maine' prop of Democracy is broken." "I shall have no policy of my own against the will of the people—Grant." "21,000 majority in Maine." "This is terrible—Seymour". "Sherman, Sheridan, Sickles, Meade and Thomas vote for Grant; Lee, Hampton, Beauregard, Forrest, Wise, vote for Seymour." "A man of understanding holdeth his peace; Prov. XI 12". "Let us have peace." "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver; Prov. XXV, 11." "Impartial justice to all men." "Under the banner of progress we fight and we win." "Human liberty is the only true foundation of human government." "With malice toward none and charity for all." "Liberty, equality, fraternity." "Allegheny county good for 10,000 majority." "I propose to move immediately on your works." "Rebels shall not rule this country." "God gave Lincoln and liberty; let us fight for both—Grant." "I shall not attempt to lay out any line of retreat—Grant." "This is a republic where the will of the people is the law of the land." "The foremost Captain of the time, in his simplicity sublime." "Donelson, Pittsburgh Landing, Vicksburg, Chattanooga, Wilderness, Richmond, Appomattox." Fortrait of General Grant and the words "The peoples choice." "Fear neither death nor fame, till you hear the news from Maine." "Johnson, Seymour, Blair, Buchanan, 'Let the dead bury the dead.'" "With the election of Seymour and Blair we gain what we fought for—Wade Hampton." "Muffle the drum and toll the bell, Seymour and Blair are going to rebel." "The patriots who preserved the nation in war will maintain its honor in peace." "Our party is the true Labor Reform Party. It has secured free soil for free labor." "Seymour to the New York rioters, "My Friends." The Club was followed by a wagon trimmed in red, white and blue colors, decorated with flags, and containing a delegation from the Club. They were followed by a wagon draped in the National colors, in which was seated the Fifth Ward Glee Club.

The Sixth Ward, Allegheny, came next in order. They turned out one hundred and twenty-five strong, uniformed with blue blouses and bronze colored caps, under command of Capt. Warner. With them they carried five transparencies, with the following inscriptions: "Sixth Ward Good for Grant;" "Shall the Rebels whom Grant Paroled, be able to boast that Loyal Men surrendered him to them at the ballot-box? Never;" "Let us have Peace;" "Loyal men shall rule America;" "Grant and Colfax—The True Representatives of Loyalty, Justice, Liberty, Equal Rights and National Honor;" "We Sey-mour in Grant;" "Grant and Colfax, with Peace and National Honor Preserved;" "Let Loyalty preserve what Bravery has Won;" "Sixth Ward Allegheny Grant and Colfax Club;" "No room for Traitors;" "Grant, Colfax and Phelps."

They were followed by a two horse wagon, from which fireworks were let off at intervals under the direction of some members of the Good Will Hose Company.

The Eighth Ward Grant and Colfax Club brought up the rear of the companies of the division. They were uniformed with red caps and caps, and numbered fifty men, under command of Capt. Eggers. They were headed by the Duquesne Band and bore a transparency inscribed as follows: "We cannot change our Union votes and give them to the Gray;" "Hurrah for the loyal Blues and Grant that won the day. Carriages containing citizens brought up the rear and closed the Fourth Division.

FIFTH GRAND DIVISION.

The Fifth Grand Division formed on Market street, with the right resting on Water street, and was composed of the following organizations:

Capt. CHAS. W. BATCHELOR, Commanding.

AIDS.

Dr. A. H. Gross,	John Scott, Jr.,
Lewis Winter,	W. H. Morrison,
C. P. Duff,	Christ. Haus,
Harry Hugus,	Dr. S. F. Arenburg,
Frank Ardary,	C. H. Bradley,
C. A. Scott,	Thos. McConnell,
Capt. D. Holmes,	Henry Baum,
Rolland Smith,	Dr. P. Perchment,
Capt. E. C. Negley,	G. W. Hallman,
A. P. McWilliams,	Samuel Butler,
Thomas Hartley.	Richard Thompson.

Brass Band; mounted men of the Fourteenth Ward Grant Club, numbering fifty men, commanded by Capt. Harry Vanvorhees, had the right of the division. They were followed by the marching men of the Club, one hundred in number, commanded by Capt. C. M'Gee. The whole under the command of Col. D. B. Morris. This Club carried several tastefully decorated banners and a beautiful regulation flag; also a transparency bearing the following inscription: "Fourteenth ward good for three hundred majority."

The Sixteenth ward Grant Club numbering ninety-eight men, commanded by Capt. A. B. Boal, came next in order. In connection with them were three wagons, in one of which were thirty-eight young ladies, representing the thirty-eight States; one wagon containing the veterans of the ward, and another with fire-works, which were used along the route of the procession. The club carried a fine banner, and several transparencies, bearing the following inscriptions: "Grant the Boy in Blue, The Hurrah for Seymour and all his crew."

The club carried several other transparencies and banners from which we were unable to get the inscriptions.

The Grant Club of the Fifteenth and Seventeenth wards headed by the Lawrence Hose Company, come next in the line. This Club turned out over one hundred men, under command of Capt. John Hoerr. The following were among the inscriptions on the transparencies: "The Democratic Platform is a Whited Sepulchre, Full of Dead Men's Bones." "What Great Washington Gained God Sent Grant to Preserve." "We Send Our Ballots as We Sent Our Bullets." A fine martial band, led by Thomas Zug, was at the head of this delegation, and the Lawrenceville Glee Club, in a two-horse wagon, brought up the rear.

The Eighteenth ward Grant Club, commanded by Mr. David Kirk, came next in order. The Club numbered one hundred men on foot and about half that number in six wagons, in one of which was a large transparency with the following inscriptions: "Will give 1,800 per cent. over Geary's majority." "No Repudiation. Honesty is the best policy." They also carried several fine banners and a beautiful stand of colors.

The Nineteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-first wards Clubs were next in the line: They numbered one hundred and fifty men, and were commanded by Captain P. D. Perchment. A two horse wagon tastefully decorated with evergreens, flags and Chinese lanters, with a fine engraving of Gen. Grant, surrounded by a wreath of evergreens on either side of the wagon.

The delegation from East Deer township brought up the rear of this division. As it did not form in line until after the procession was in motion, we were unable to get either the name of the Commander or the number of men in line, but from appearances we judge there were about fifty. Accompanying the delegation was a two horse wagon containing a number of men, and in it was a transparency with the following inscription: "East Deer—Little but Strong."

SIXTH GRAND DIVISION.

The Sixth Grand Division, composed of the Central Tanner's Club and Grant Clubs from the old wards of the city formed on Wood street, with the right resting on Water street, in the following order:

Gen. A. L. PEARSON commanding.

AIDS:

Thomas Reese,	Ed. Brush,
Wm. R. Ford,	Ralph Richardson,
Sam W. Reynolds,	Capt. B. Gallifeath,
Ed. T. Whitmore,	John F. Hunter,
H. A. Collier,	Wm. H. McCreary,
Dr. J. G. McCandless,	Willis W. Powers,
Wm. Hosack,	Col. J. D. Owens,
E. S. Morrow,	Dr. A. M. Barr,
Maj. Sam'l Kilgore,	John G. Brown.

The Great Western Band.

Companies A and F of the Allegheny County Tanner's Club, numbering two hundred men, commanded by Capt. Patterson Each company carried a beautiful regulation flag, and between them was a transparency bearing the following inscriptions: "Grant and Colfax, Union and Liberty." "The Union Undivided and Undivisable." "Allegheny County Tanner's Club."

The Eleventh Ward Grant Club consisting of two companies, "A" and "B" numbering seventy-five men each, commanded respectively by Captains Ewing and Oliver, followed the Tanners' Club. This Club made an unusually fine appearance. In addition to a number of transparencies a beautiful silk flag which was presented to them by the ladies of the Eleventh ward a few days since was carried at the head of the Club. A wagon containing fire works followed in the rear.

Next came the delegation from the Ninth and Tenth Wards, which was a very large one. The Club bearing torches numbered about two hundred men, and two wagons accompanied the delegation in which were transparencies bearing many devices. We failed to get the name of the commanding officer.

The First Ward Grant Club, numbering one hundred men, under command of Capt. Perkins, was the next delegation. This club, in addition to several beautiful transparencies and banners, bearing appropriate mottoes and inscriptions, carried a full set of colors, five stand, formerly belonging to the 70th New York Veteran Volunteers, including two regimental battle flags, and two regulation or United States flags. In the rear of the Club was the Central glee club in a two horse wagon, in which was a large transparency with the following inscriptions: "To the Great God our Cause we Yield," "U. S. of A. and U. S. G," "The First in the Field."

Next came the delegation from the Second ward, headed by the Junior Grant club of the Second ward, commanded by Capt. Phelps, numbering twenty-five boys.

The little fellows made a fine appearance and attracted general attention all along the route of procession. They carried a transparency bearing the following inscriptions: "As our fathers fought so fight we." "Seymour and Blair's election postponed."

The Second Ward Grant Club, numbering one hundred and fifty men, commanded by Capt. W. B. Cook, preceded by a fine martial band, were next in the line. This club, in addition to their transparencies which have been heretofore mentioned, carried two beautiful stands of colors, one of which, a beautiful silk flag, was presented by the ladies of the ward a few moments before they formed in the line of procession.

A section of artillery fully manned, commanded by Lieutenant John Floyd, and drawn by six fine horses, followed the Second ward Club.

The Grant Club of the Fourth ward, numbering one hundred men, commanded by Captain McClure, was next in the line. A fine martial band was at the head of the Club, which carried, in addition to a fine flag, several banners and transparencies, from which we were unable to get the inscriptions. A four-horse wagon followed in the rear of this delegation loaded with fire-works, from which a fine display was made all along the route of procession.

The Grant and Colfax Club of the Seventh and Eighth wards followed. This Club is one of the finest in the city, and made a very fine appearance last night. They had one hundred and eighty men in ranks, under the command of Capt. Samuel Kilgore. They had several fine transparencies, upon one of which we noticed the following inscription: "We conquered the Rebels in the field; we will conquer them again in November.' "Grant—We sustained him in the field; we will not desert him now."

Next came the 12th ward Grant Club headed by the Excelsior martial band. There were two hundred and twenty-five men in this Club, under the command of Captain Williams. They carried two fine stands of colors and several transparencies and banners, inscribed with appropriate mottoes and devices. A two horse wagon, tastefully decorated and containing fireworks, followed the club.

Next in line came the Sixth ward Club, with one hundred and twenty-five men, divided into two companies "A" and "B," commanded by Capt. E. S. Wright and S. A. Chambers, the battalion being under the command of Capt. Foster Allward.

There were several fine transparencies in the ranks of this Club, from some of which we took the following inscriptions: "Washington and Lincoln the Martyrs, and Grant the preserver of our country." "Loyalty shall Govern what Loyalty has ward." "Let us have Peace."

The Third and Fifth ward Club was the next in line. They turned out one hundred and sixty men, commanded by John T. Brown. Accompanying the delegation were two four horse wagons, in which were the veterans of the ward, carrying transparencies, from which we copy the following inscriptions: "William Penn was a carpet bagger." "Unto U. S. Grant peace." "Rebels will vote for Seymour and Blair; loyal men will vote for Grant and Colfax."

DECORATIONS.

Never has the city shone more resplendently than last evening. The weather which up to almost the last hour had threatened grimly, had not sufficed to intimidate the loyal people of Pittsburgh, or to dampen their enthusiasm, and on every hand most beautiful results of patriotism and good taste were manifested. In every direction the city blazed with light and gleamed with the red, white and blue. Not only were the streets that formed the route of the procession splendidly decorated, but others along which it did not pass, were handsomely ornamented. And the decorations were as beautiful and original as numerous. Our citizens seemed happily inspired for the occasion, and the devices and emblems they displayed were worthy, many of them, to have a more lasting existence than they achieved. Some of them were rich in the extreme, and spoke of money expended with no grudging hearts to give expression to the faith and loyalty of our people.

THE STARTING PLACE.

Water street, along which the procession formed, was lavishly decorated. Brilliant lights and beautiful colors were everywhere. As far down as Market street the buildings were handsomely trimmed, flags, large and small, were waving and the ubiquitous Chinese lanterns were shining. The building occupied by J. Painter & Sons., was noticeable for the number and tasteful disposition of its decorations. Flags and lanterns mingled very handsomely all over the front. At the corner of Wood street stood the cannon of the Second Ward Club which bellowed forth the signal for starting. Above Wood the buildings of Chess, Smythe & Co., Fulton, Bowman & Co., Jas. Woods & Co., Jas. B. Lyon & Co., and A. & F. Chambers were the objects of great admiration. They were ornamented uniformly and with great taste and beauty. Innumerable flags and scores of lanterns made the fronts of the houses brilliant. The establishment of Messrs. Jones & Laughlin, of the American Iron Works, was particularly handsome. The elements of flags and lanterns had been admirably combined and the effect was very fine.

MONONGAHELA HOUSE.

As was to have been expected the Monongahela Honse was ablaze with light. Mr. Crossen is never behind in exhibiting his patriotism, and last evening he outdid himself. His splendid hotel was illuminated in every part magnificently. Between three and four hundred lanterns shone from the walls, disposed in various handsome styles. Every window was aglow with light, producing a very beautiful effect. Over the balcony was an illuminated federal arch in gas jets, and under this the shining names of Grant and Colfax. At the ends of the balconies were powerful reflected lights and under the balconies locomotive head lights sent out dazzling flames. The display of fireworks here while the procession was passing was very fine.

SMITHFIELD STREET.

The display on Smithfield street was worthy of the occasion, the illumination being very general and very handsome. The La Belle saloon and the grocery establishment of M. W. Rankin & Co., were noticeable for the handsome manner in which they were ornamented. The Merchants Hotel was brilliant in the extreme. Everywhere that a flag or lantern could be placed one was displayed. Over the doorway shone a large star in jets, with a portrait of Grant in the centre. Two engine head lights illuminated the street from the hotel balcony. Some of the flags displayed were large and handsome.

On Third avenue, also, the exhibition was a fine one. Several of the private residences near Smithfield street were very handsomely decorated with flags and illuminated with lamps. The residences of Messrs. Cunningham, Carroll, Torrence, Phillips and Ogden were ornamented with large and handsome flags gracefully looped up or hung out free to the breeze, while lanterns were gracefully and abundantly displayed.

ROSS STREET.

The illumination on Ross street was general, and many of the buildings deserve a more full description than we can give. The display of fireworks on this street, while the procession was passing, was very fine. The residence of Col. Wm. B. Neeper, on the corner of Ross and Diamond streets, was particularly noticeable. The Court House was most handsomely illuminated and hung with numerous flags. Its grim walls were made more beautiful than we had supposed possible. Those in charge of the decoration of the building may congratulate themselves on their complete success.

One of the noticeable features on Pennsylvanta avenue was a string of lanterns stretched a great distance from the office of S. & W. Martin's lumber yard. All along the street flags and lanterns were displayed in profusion, while in the windows of some of the stores the National colors were gracefully festooned. Several of the private residences were brilliantly illuminatad and hung with flags.

Along Pride, Caldwell, Fulton, Logan, Decatur and Franklin streets, the display was very good, many of the buildings presenting a very handsome appearance.

WYLIE STREET.

The view, on entering upon Wylie street, was magnificent. The entire street was illuminated, and the effect was such as is seldom equalled. From this point the glimpse of the Court House was particularly beautiful. The street above Logan, also, was very handsome in appearance. The residences of Jared M. Brush, Esq., Charles Jeremy, Esq., Major A. M. Brown, Alderman Joseph A. Butler, and David Reed, Esq., were magnificently decorated, reflecting much credit to the occupants. In fact nearly every residence and building along the street displayed flags and lanterns in profusion.

FIFTH AVENUE.

Seldom is a more brilliant spectacle witnessed than Fifth avenue presented from the foot of Wylie street. The entire length of the street was a display of beautiful magnificence. Abel's drug store was very handsome with flags, lanterns and devices. His display was very rich. He dispensed fire works, too, with a liberal hand, and as the procession passed, rockets and Bengal lights marked his location most brilliantly. The law offices below Grant street and the residences further down were very beautiful. The residence of Dr. McCook presented a particularly fine appearance. The Masonic Hall Auction Rooms of Messrs. H. B. Smithson & Co. were very handsomely decorated, flags, lanterns, &c., being lavishly hung out. The establishments of Messrs. Hoffman, Hoene & Co., McCallum Bros., W. A. Gildenfenny and H. Miner were very fine. Dunseath's jewelry store

THAT LINE.

'Twas a dark, dreary line and a line of blood,
A line strewn with fragments of life,
Tarough the dark, dank swamp and the wilderness wood—
A line of fierce turmoil and strife.

'Twas a line of entrenchments high and strong,
Protecting an insolent foe—
Of dl ch and redoubt and abattis prong,
A line of death and of woe.

His chieftain's told tales of losses immense,
Of battalions swept off at a surge,
Of death in the path of the boldest advance,
Of martial strains turned to a dirge:

Of dense tangled wildwood, of intricate trail,
And of morass, and gully, and glen—
Of impassable gulf, and of fa homless swail,
And of swift rushing currents to stem.

'Twas a terrible line to the gallant chief,
That must answer Jehovah's demand,
For the lives of ten thousand to fall in the strife
And the life of our liberty's land.

But be blanched not with fear at the vision of blood,
And of phantoms of death by the way;
At the end of the line f ir Col mbia stood
Unchained and in spo less array.

His heart was uplifted to Heaven's bright shrine,
For st ength to encounter the foe
As his columns he wheeled to the left into line,
And advanc d from the banks of the Po.

He dreamed not that Fame her bright lustre would shed,
As his words full of courage sublime,
But declar d with a smile, as the columns he led:
"I will fight it out, boys, on this line!"

'Twas a triumphant line that led to the goal
Of Peace, and the nations will chaunt,
For ages to come, that name on Fame's scroll,
And sing of the triumphs of GRANT!

A. McG.

When lovely woman stoops to frolic
And rues the ruse, alas! too late,
What baim shall so the her melancholie?
What art shall set her back up straight?

The only thing for her disaster,
The only way her woe to end,
Is to apply a mustard plaster;
If she won't go it, let her bend.

—The Italian who invented the practical and practicable flying machine broke several bones in testing it. Who will next invent this machine?
—Brandreth, the pill man, talks of writing up his European experiences for the N. Y. Post. His letters will then be from pill-er to post.—Chicago Post.
—Bayard Taylor has won a comfortable little fortune for himself, and is said to be worth about $80,000, besides three shares in the New York Tribune.
—A boy in Ohio tried to see how near he could stand to a passing railway train. The poor fellow probably knows, but he was cut to pieces and had his brains spattered out in finding out.
—James Gordon Bennett has a fortune of $3,000,000, which he leaves in his will to his two children, James G., Jr., and a ughter, said to be pretty, and only seventeen years old.
—Rumor says the Post is in league with Radicals. Twice now it has succeeded in misleading its subscribers by false reports purporting to be from Maine, but evidently from somewhere else.
—The educational charges at Oxford University, England, have been greatly reduced. A student now only pays an entrance fee of twenty-five dollars, and a yearly fee of seventeen and a half dollars.
But—Burt—Blurt-ed out something about toil-hardened hands, sweaty brows and labor reform, and wouldn't commit himself to any party. When a man tries to sit on two stools he generally falls between them into the spittoon and gets thrown out.
—President Johnson said "it is absolutely necessary for the Democracy to carry Pennsylvania," this probably is the reason he is pardoning so many Democrats out of the Penitentiaries. Six whisky men who were in for defrauding the government have just been pardoned out of the Eastern Penitentiary by his order.
—Democratic roosters don't need coaxing to make them sing as loudly as they know how. They seem to be as blessed with a superabundance of lives as a cat, and every shadow of a ghost of a hope of victory brings them out again. Well, we can't blame them for wanting to crow, but with so many on one post some of them will have to clear out or there will be a row in the hen coop.
—Kentucky is going to demand of Andrew Johnson the pardon of John C. Breckenridge. If any man ever has the shamelessness, and the power at the same time, to pardon Jefferson Davis, Floyd, Howell Cobb or John C. Breckinridge, all of whom were the worst of the traitors, and if that man does pardon them, he deserves to be hung as high as Breckenridge, the foulest traitor of them all, should be.
—We defy any class of men in any part of the world to equal the present Democracy in defaming and blacking a man's character. Butler, for instance. Nobody believes the spoon story, but still it is hauled out on every occasion. If this party should ever gain possession of the White House, (which God forbid), they would never rest till it was blackwashed all over, inside and out.
—Ruskin, for a wonder, praises Church's Niagara. His mind is so warped on the subject of America, that beautifully, sensibly and brilliantly as he can write on many subjects, as soon as he crosses the ocean his words, sentiments and feelings become narrow, mean and bigoted, and therefore his praise of Church's picture receives an additional value since it is forced from him thus unwillingly.
—A man who was put off a street car in Cincinnati the other day for refusing to pay his fare, became so enraged at the conductor that he seized a huge boulder and flung it at him. He missed his aim, however, and the rock crashed through a window of the car and hit a lady, who was sitting there, fracturing her skull badly. The man is now under arrest awaiting developments in the account the lady whose recovery is now
—Francis Baring, head of the great house of Baring Brothers, in London, and third Lord Ashburton in the English Peerage, died on the 6th instant. He was the second son of the first Lord Ashburton, and his wife who was a daughter of William Bingham, of Philadelphia. He married a daughter of the late Duke de Bassanno, and was the father of the Duchess of Grafton. He was for eighteen years in the House of Commons, and for four years in the House of Lords, having succeeded to the title in 1864.
—The New York Sun has at last probed and exposed the great "wickedest man" swindle. It says: "The wickedest man is paid $350 a month for the use of his barroom for one hour a day for religious meetings, provided the sale of whisky and the former business of the place are discontinued during that period." To our minds there seems but little difference as far as wickedness goes, between this hypocrite who has leased himself to this business and those self-styled good men who countenance and abet his hypocrisy. A notorious rat-pit has also been leased at $150 per month for the same purpose.
—Corry O'Lanus has heard all about those "immense rebel gains in Maine." He has received the following letter:

SQUEDUNK, Maine.—To C. O'Lanus, Esq.: The election in the town has gone just as we expected. The Republicans have carried the town by an increased majority, but the heaviest proportionate gain has been on the Democratic side, as you will see by the figures:

	1867.	1868.		1867.	1868.
Rep. vote	50	60	Dem. vote	1	2
			Totals	51	62

The Democratic gain is 100 per cent., while the Republican gain is only 20 per cent. At this rate the redemption of Maine is only a question of time.

Yours, HUGH B. BLODE.

THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH CABLE.—At a recent general meeting of the stockholders of the Anglo-American Telegraph Company, held on September 7th, the President, Sir Richard A. Glass, stated that its proportion of the earnings of the cable, from May 1st to July 31st, had averaged $2,482, the minimum tariff during that period being $25. Since September 1st, the tariff for ten words, not exceeding fifty letters, nad been reduced to $15, in gold, and for the first five days the daily receipts had averaged $2,633, a most encouraging increase. It is not intended to make a further reduction of rates. No satisfactory account of the cause of the accident to the cable on August 3d, was given, but it was stated to have occurred at the same point as the break of last year.

THE REGULAR fall fashions "open" in New York on the 22d, and the trade are making great preparations accordingly. It is of some importance to be assured that French poplins will be much used for street wear, and that these are chameleon, purple and gold, or red and blue, as well as in plain colors; also, that Scotch plaids, in green, blue and brown, in woolen, will be much used for carriage wraps this season. Also, that reddish brown, in every variety of shade, will be the prevailing color for street wear, and that the different shades of lavender and gray will also be worn, with suits, when harmonizing in color. Also, that most of the new lace collars are pointed in front, a la Shakspeare.

CRUDE.

The market continues firm and somewhat excited, and spot oil is a shade higher, and the same is true of October. Sales of 2,500 bbls between now and January 1st, buyers option, at 12; 600 spot at 11¾; 500 do at 11½; 100 Smith's Ferry at 11½; and 1,000 for October at 12. It is but proper to remark, however, that there were but few buyers for October at 12, as we heard of one party having tried all day to sell that delivery at that figure, without being able to find a buyer. Immediate delivery seems to be firm at quotations, and at the close, there were but few, if any sellers, below 12.

REFINED.

The Refined market is also firm, and with Antwerp reported at 50½, holders generally were disposed to hold for higher prices. We can report sales of 500 bbls for September at 31¾c; 500 November at 30c; 500 each October, November and December at 30c; 1,000 October at 31c; 1,000 November at 31c. At the close, September was quoted firm at 31¾c to 32c, and October at 31c. As will be seen from the above, the "bulls" are coming to the top again, and the "bears," "index" among the rest, will have to take their holes. "Turn about is fair play," is an old and true saying, and no where is it better illustrated than in the oil business. The most interesting feature connected with the market to-day was an inquiry from Richmond, Virginia, for one thousand barrels—Tack Bros. received the telegram.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to rise steadily at this point with nearly eleven feet in the channel, by the Monongahela marks last evening. Considerable rain fell again yesterday, though late in the afternoon the clouds broke loose, and it looked as though it would clear up.

The New State, was the only arrival from below and she with the Grey Eagle, for Parkersburg, were the only departures.

The Bayard, Capt. Geo. D. Moore, is the regular packet for Parkersburg, to-day leaving promptly at noon.

Our weather prophet G. A., states that the indications point to a remarkably cold winter—bad for steamboatmen.

The following tow-boats are expected to get on the the present rise. Collier, Lion, Coal City, Coal Valley, Fearless and Whale for Cincinnati; Sam Roberts, for Louisville, and the Grand Luke, Boaz and Mary Alice. These boats it is estimated will take out considerably over a million bushels of coal.

The Kate Putnam, Capt. Geo. W. Reed, will be the first boat for St. Louis, leaving on Friday evening. She will be followed by the Belvernon, Capt. J. J. Darragh.

Capt. Wash Kerr, late of the Robt. Moore, was in the city yesterday, also, Capt. Ed. Evans, late of the Westmoreland. We expect to find both of these gentlemen with other boats.

The Ida Rees No. 2, Capt. Albert, is announced to leave for Cincinnati, Cairo and Memphis to-day.

—The J. N. McCullough was to have left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday evening. Among other items of freight, she has 300 bales hay which took at $4 per ton.

—A Louisville telegram says: Captain Pink Varble is in receipt of a dispatch from the officers of the Tempest, from Duvall's Bluff, White river, recounting an accident to the boat on her upward trip, by encountering a snag at Big Island. She leaked badly, and made one foot of water in her hold before it could be checked. The water was pumped out, the leak stopped, and protest entered, when she proceeded on her trip. She has a very valuable cargo on board, all received here, and covered with $65,000 in local offices. The amount of damage is not stated.

—The Lorena and Leni Leoti are loading at Cincinnati for New Orleans.

—The Cincinnati Commercial says: As soon as Capt. Dravo has the St. Charles ready for business, the J. N. McCullough will leave here on her regular day—every Friday noon. In the meantime she will make irregular trips.

—The Northern Line and Keokuk Packet Companies have reduced their rates of freight to sesper 100 pounds.

—Capt. Lobarge, of the War Eagle, is about to proceed to the Ohio river to contract for a new boat, to include the War Eagle's machinery. She will be 240 feet long, and run on the Missouri river. She may be built at Jeffersonville.

—Capt. W. H. Kerr, late of the Robert Moore, is still at Cincinnati, negotiating for the purchase of another packet for the Portsmouth and Pittsburgh trade. He has made proposals for the purchase of the Anna, New York, Argosy and other steamers, without buying, however, as yet.

—A late Nashville paper says: The Cumberland is still falling, with twelve feet on the shoals. Freights are exceedingly scarce. There is little or no grain for shipment; in fact, there is barely any margin in prices to justify its movement.

—We clip the followin items from the Cincinnati Gazette: Capt. Ed. Evans does not leave for Pittsburg till this evening. It is reported that he will have command of the Leonidas this season; and it is also thought that he will take charge of the Lorena, with Capt. Sam. Shuman in the office.....Captain Vincent Shinkle has made an offer for the Leonidas, but Capt. John L. Rhodes says he won't take less than twenty-five thousand dollars for her—a higher price than was accepted for the Westmoreland.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Commercial: Last Saturday night, about 9 o'clock, an ascending tow-boat, with a tow of empty barges, name unknown, crowded the Messenger, bound down on the rocks below Big Hocking. Capt. Thos. Poe was at the wheel of the Messenger at the time. The tow-boat run into the Messenger breaking off her larboard fantail, which was repaired here, yesterday, before she proceeded to St. Louis. As the tow-boat did not stop, the Messenger was compelled to keep on, in order to prevent the tow-boat from striking her forward of the larboard cylinder. We almost daily hear complaints of close and reckless piloting on tow-boats, while meeting steamers. It appears that they delight in crowding other boats on the shore, claiming all the channel, while ascending the river with their empty tows.

—The tow-boat Panther, left Cincinnati, for Pittsburgh Monday, with two barges in tow, containing one hundred tons of Hay. She has 300 tons of iron engaged at Ironton and Portsmouth.

WE PRINT on the inside pages of this morning's GAZETTE—Second page: Poetry, Ephemeris. Third and Sixth Pages: Mercantile, River and Financial News. Seventh Page: Poetry, Letter No. 10 from Rev. Jos. King, from Europe. Miscellaneous.

Gold Closed in New York yesterday at 143½.

BEFORE THE November election, a sufficient number of able speakers for the cause of the Union, will make an electioneering tour through the South, beginning at North Carolina, and thence to the Gulf and to the Mississippi.

WHY did not the Pittsburgh Post of yesterday print the noble letter of that distinguished Democrat, General DIX? The document was regularly supplied to the Post, at an early hour of the preceding evening, by the Associated Press, and must have been deliberately suppressed by the managers of that Democratic (?) journal, who dared not place it before their readers. They evidently understood that DIX's letter and the rebel account of the Georgia butchery of Union men, would together constitute a text and commentary too powerful to be resisted by an honest and patriotic Democracy. And so the Post would not trust them together to the perusal of an intelligent people.

OUR Democratic cotemporary and neighbor may have accomplished the sale of a few dozen extra copies of the Post, yesterday, but we submit that this repaid very poorly for its roorback about the Maine election. Its display of poultry completely failed of the intended purpose—a discouragement of those friends of the Union who thonged our streets to witness last evening's splendid demonstration. Its only effect was to awaken a curiosity to know what might be the latest "weak invention of the enemy" to break the force of the staggering blow they had received from the glorious old Pine Tree State. This curiosity was akin to that morbid feeling which prompts so many people to throng to the execution of a criminal, or to peruse his last dying speech and confession. The fitness of this allusion will be patent to all.

MAINE AND GEORGIA.

The Pittsburgh Post paraded its brigade of roosters yesterday morning. A careful scrutiny of its columns revealed the reasons therefor as follows, and nothing more:

"A few lines came to us quite accidentally last evening, announcing the official majority in Maine to be 18,856.

"We have heard the news from Maine, and it amounts to 18,856, given as the complete returns in the Boston Post, although not official. We can afford to give a few of our roosters an airing on this."

The two paragraphs do not hitch at all. But no matter for that; it is only truth which is consistent with itself, and that is a quality apparently not in demand with Democratic journals.

The full official vote of Maine, as cast last week, is not yet promulgated So far as yet known, the returns foot up considerably over 21,000, and are not unlikely to exceed 22,000 Union majority.

But our neighbor is uncandid; he lacks the courage to tell the whole truth, or he would have editorially contessed that his "dung-hills" were paraded, not for the transparent humbug of an alleged reduction in the Union vote in Maine, but in exultation over the Ku-Klux butchery of Union men in Georgia, to the rebel account of which he gave nearly two columns of space under the displayed lines of "The Beauties of Radical Rule Shown Up," and others of the same sort. That was what the Pittsburgh Post really felt happiest over. Why had it not the courage to say so?

THE PROCESSION last night was one of the most brilliant affairs of the character ever witnessed in Western Pennsylvania, and will long be remembered as the crowning display of the GRANT campaign, unless, indeed, the daylight march of to-day surpasses it in grandeur and magnificence. There were between eight and ten thousand citizens in the line and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed throughout both cities. The demonstration was highly creditable to all concerned and conclusively proved that Allegheny county and her Republican neighbors of Western Pennsylvania are alive to the importance of the campaign now drawing to a close.

The procession to-day promises to be an equally grand affair, and we cannot too strongly urge on our readers the importance of turning out. The occasion of last night dampened the spirits of the Democrats hereabouts, and let that of to-day be of such imposing character as to forever crush their hopes for doing any good for their cause in this neighborhood.

The Convention will assemble at the hour designated elsewhere, and will be addressed by the distinguished gentlemen whose names are announced as speakers. Let no Republican fail to be present.

BEAVER AROUSED!

Notwithstanding that it rained yesterday morning, the Republican Mass Convention proved a vast success. From every quarter delegations poured into the town until it was literally swarming with vehicles and persons. It was a demonstration that testified fittingly to the enthusiasm of the masses.

Two stands were organized for speaking, and yet only a small part of the people could get near enough to hear. Gov. GEARY, Ex-Gov. CURTIN, Hon. A. K. McCLURE, Hon. THOMAS MARSHALL, Gen. FISHER and others addressed the multitudes.

SOUTHERN AFFAIRS.

Not attaching too much credit to the report that the Administration directs the vigorous interposition of Federal power to prevent the recurrence at the South of rebel butcheries like that at Camilla, the country is, nevertheless, to be congratulated upon the present control of the War Department, and of the Military District of the Gulf by General SCHOFIELD and MEADE We have in the past record, and the established loyalty of these officers, a grateful assurance that the laws of the Union and of the several States will be enforced with all the fidelity and promptitude which may be practicable, even in the absence of any cordial co-operation on the part of the President himself.

The lamentable difficulty is still here—that the letter of any law whatever falls short of the mark, and the salutary control of the most competent military yields an insufficient protection, when a spirit of sullen discontent pervades any considerable number of the governed. It is too painfully evident that this spirit actuates the majority of the Southern whites, and that its existence is due to the influence of an informal partisanship, which has charged rebel breasts with renewed hopes for their "lost cause" under recent Democratic avowals of principle and purpose. The real remedy for this mischief is at the polls, and there it will be in the power of the people to secure obedience to the laws, a full submission to the public authority, and a final acquiescence in the supremacy of the Union and of all fundamental liberties.

THE ONLY TRUE FOUNDATION OF GOVERNMENT.

We print below a letter written by Gen. GRANT five years ago, in response to an invitation from the Memphis Chamber of Commerce to a complimentary dinner, at the close of his great Tennessee campaign. It will be read with the deepest satisfaction by all patriots whose intelligence accepts the truth of his noble declaration, that "Human Liberty is the only True Foundation of Human Government:"

MEMPHIS, Tenn., August 26, 1863.

GENTLEMEN: I have received a copy of resolutions passed by the "loyal citizens of Memphis, at a meeting held at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, August 25th, 1863," tendering me a public reception.

In accepting this testimonial, which I do at a great sacrifice of my personal feelings, I simply desire to pay a tribute to the first public exhibition in Memphis of loyalty to the Government which I represent in the Department of the Tennessee. I should dislike to refuse, for considerations of personal convenience, to acknowledge, anywhere, or in any form, the existence of sentiments which I have so long and so ardently desired to see manifested in this department. The stability of this Government and the unity of this nation depend solely on the cordial support and the earnest loyalty of the people. While, therefore, I thank you sincerely for the kind expressions you have used towards myself, I am profoundly gratified at this public recognition, in the city of Memphis, of the power and authority of the Government of the United States.

I thank you, too, in the name of the noble army which I have the honor to command. It is composed of men whose loyalty has been proven by their deeds of heroism and their willing sacrifices of life and health. They will rejoice with me that the miserable adherents of the rebellion, whom their bayonets have driven from this fair land, are being replaced by men who acknowledge HUMAN LIBERTY AS THE ONLY TRUE FOUNDATION OF HUMAN GOVERNMENT. May your efforts to restore your city to the cause of the Union be as successful as have been theirs to reclaim it from the despotic rule of the leaders of the rebellion. I have the honor to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

U. S. GRANT, Major General.

DEMOCRATIC JOURNALS assert, on the pretended authority of Commissioner Wells, that "two hundred and fifty millions of dollars, taken from the people, did not reach the Treasury." When and where did the Commissioner make this statement? Let us have the documents.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR. By John William Draper, M. D. LL. D., Professor of Chemistry and Physiology in the University of New York; Author of "A Treatise on Human Physiology," "A History of the Intellectual Development of Europe," &c. In three volumes: Vol. II. containing the events from the inauguration of President Lincoln to the proclamation of emancipation of the slaves. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh.

Few writers of the great events of the late war have grasped the issues involved so vigorously as Professor Draper. The grouping together of the salient features of the period named indicate the philosophical tendency of the mind of the author, and thereby enabling the reader to get a better idea of the gigantic struggle which we have passed through. His style is easy and flowing, and yet there is a bold dashing vein, which captivates, instructs and interests the reader. For graphic description, the work is preminent. The decided style of the author and just, discriminating views of the grand issues of the war, and the conduct of the noble Lincoln, are presented with frankness and singular ability. This volume embraces seven sections as follows: The progress and culmination of the conspiracy; vast development of war-like operations; prelude to the great campaigns; campaigns for the opening of the Mississippi, and piercing the east and west lines of the Confederacy; campaign for the capture of Richmond; the blockade and operations conducted with it; and the foreign relations and domestic policy of the Republic. We expect to notice this work more fully at another time.

MISCELLANEOUS PROSE WORKS. By Edward Bulwer, Lord Lytton. In two volumes. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh.

These volumes exhibit the fertility and wonderful genius of the mind of Bulwer. Here we have the opinions and sentiments, the reveries and reflections, the studies of mankind and critical theories of art, of the distinguished novelist. Varied as the subjects are, they show the grasp of mind he possessed. Independent of the literary merit of the work, and as a valuable contribution to literature, it will be highly prized by the general reader. The first volume contains a brief article on the causes and results of the Reign of Terror, sketches of Goldsmith, Charles Lamb and some of his companions, Gray's works, Sir Thomas Browne, Pit and Fox, Payne versus Falkland, and an interesting life of Schiller, covering nearly one hundred pages. The second volume contains the Essays Written in Youth, in 1832. The closing part contains three essays—written in 1862, and now first published—on "The Influence of Love on Literature and Real Life," which display breadth of thought, culture, and a love of the beautiful of the highest type. Harper's deserve the thanks of the lovers of literature.

THE DISOWNED. LUCRETIA, OR THE CHILDREN OF THE NIGHT. By Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton, Bart. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis, 93 Wood street, Pittsburgh.

These two volumes comprise a part of the elegant "Globe Edition" of Bulwer's novels. "The Disowned" is one of his earliest creations. The story is full of interest, the plot of which is generally known. "Lucretia" is a tale giving a striking portraiture of vice and crime, with a distinction between the two features of immorality. In presenting the various characters, the author's graphic powers of description are brought out in contrasting low life with the higher walks of society. Now that this edition is published and fully before the public, we repeat what we have stated before, that for compactness, neatness in binding, paper, text, and otherwise, it surpasses any other edition that we have seen, and withal so reasonable in price.

FIRST PRINCIPLES OF POPULAR EDUCATION AND PUBLIC INSTRUCTION. By S. S. Randall, Superintendent of Public Schools of the City of New York. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, 45 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh.

A work of this character, and by one who had so many years of experience, is worthy of the attention of educators, and all interested in education. The author insists upon the most generous conception of the work of education, not only as a means to intellectual vigor, but as a means to the development of the whole nature. The opening chapter lays down principles of the highest tone, and contains, too, the right view of the foundation principles of education. In the fifteen chapters, or rather essays, Mr. Randall treats of the effect of education in diminishing crime and pauperism, the importance of circulating fundamental principles of Christianity, and other great truths, which are discussed with singular ability. Teachers will find much in the volume to instruct and interest them.

SMOKED GLASS. By Orpheus C. Kerr, author of "Orpheus C. Kerr's Papers," "Avery Gliburn," etc. With illustrative anachromisms by Thomas Worth. Published by G. W. Carlton, New York. For sale by John W. Pittock, Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh.

Persons familiar with the style of the "Orpheus C. Kerr Paper's," can readily conceive the character of this book. It is one of those kind of works which does not aim, properly speaking, in imparting instruction, but rather seeks to amuse and cause persons to laugh over its wit and sarcasm. The book is full of hits at popular isms and radical errors in the political world. The comic illustrations are in keeping with the text.

THE OPIUM HABIT, with suggestions as to the remedy. Published by Harper & Brother, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

This book ought to have a wide sale, as it portrays an evil that has been silently and steadily growing in this country. While it contains much that will be useful to medical men, the philanthropist and literary men may find interest in its perusal. It has been compiled for opium eaters, and to their notice it is urgently commended, who will find suggestions as to the best means to cure the habit. The experience of the writer, and the history of opium-eaters, such as De Quincy, Coleridge, William Blair, Robert Hall, John Randolph and others, will be read with mournful yet thrilling interest. The suggestions and character of the institution for people laboring under the opium disease are worthy of, and doubtless will, receive the attention of the philanthropic.

COMER'S NAVIGATION SIMPLIFIED. Published by Harper & Brothers, Pittsburgh. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

Helps of this character mark the quick steps of this progressive age. Every department is quickened and simplified, and the attainment of knowledge is secured by a shorter and easier mode, than in oldeu time. This work is one of the class that may be properly denominated helps to the student. It is an excellent manual of instruction in navigation as practiced at sea, and well adapted to the wants of sailors. It contains all the tables of explanations, and illustrations necessary for the easy understanding, and use of the practical branches of navigation and natural astronomy; with numerous examples, worked out by the American Ephemeris and Nautical Almanac for several years ahead. Compiled at Comer's Commercial College, Boston.

ABOUT WOMAN, LOVE, AND MARRIAGE. B. F. Saunders, author of "Salad for the Solitary," etc. Published by G. W. Carleton & Co., New York. For sale by John W. Pittock, Pittsburgh.

Careful readers will find many a gem in this work, which they have read before, and who will be glad to see reset in this rich and racy volume. The exquisite taste of the author is also seen in the happy blending of beautiful thoughts, on such engrossing and inviting topics as "Woman, Love, and Marriage." It is a work that should command attention; from the simple fact that both sexes are deeply interested. The contents are, "Concerning Celibacy." "The Ruling Passion," Wedded Life," "Modern Impediments to Marriage."

THE PHILOSOPHERS OF FOUFOUVILLE. By Radical Fraulancitz. Published by G. W. Carleton, New York. For sale by John W. Pittock, Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh.

It can be readily be seen from the title, the character of the book. Certain vagaries of men with weak intellects, or at least disordered ones, and strong minded women, are burlesqued and presented in a form that will excite ridicule and laughter. The work is piquant and spicy, and shows the author to be a genius. The reading of such a book ought to cure people with queer notions. The style is quite readable.

A PSCHYE OF TO-DAY. By Mrs. C. Jenkin, Author of "Who Breaks Pays," etc. Published by Leypoldt & Holt, New York. For sale by R. S. Davis, 93 Wood street, Pittsburgh.

Rarely have we closed the reading of a book with such interested feelings as we had for this volume. It is a fascinating story of French life, in which the various elements composing the domestic circle are vividly portrayed. The different characters are wrought out in fine style, and while there are lessons of beauty and purity taught, the reader cannot fail to trace the unfortunate fruits of marriages of convenience, and the privileges frequently assumed and connived at by married people, which gives just color for rumors of immoralities of the grossest kind.

WHAT ANSWER! By Anna E. Dickinson. Published by Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

We have been favored with advanced sheets of this novel, to be published Thursday, 24th instant. It is already manifest that the power of this gifted young woman does not wholly rest in the role of a lecturer. Her wonderful power of delineation and the use of language in the strongest sense possible, are to be seen in this work. The plot is admirable, and each character is drawn with artistic skill in words of beauty and pathos, and yet so natural. Her concise, pert, pithy way of presenting her thoughts mark its pages. The announcement is enough to whet the desire of her admirers to get the book as soon as published. We would like to give extracts, and hope to do so, if our space will permit.

LABOR AND CAPITAL.

The subjoined paragraph from the N. Y. Tribune embodies, in its concluding remarks, the whole gospel of truth for the intelligent workingman:

"The National labor Congress seems wisely disposed to avoid politics, except in so far as the Eight Hour law, and kindred topics, may require. If they could likewise banish from their discussions the idea of a necessary and inherent enmity between Capital and Labor, it would be a great step toward the end they seek. Every man of them, at heart, cherishes the hope that by the proceeds of his labor he may some day become a capitalist himself. Is it then his fondest aspiration to succeed in becoming the enemy of his present associates?"

Letter from Senator Hill, of Georgia.

The following letter from Hon. JOSHUA HILL, of Georgia, was sent to a great mass meeting for the Union, held at Raleigh, on the 16th:

MADISON, GA., Monday, Sept. 14, 1868.

GENTLEMEN: It would afford me much pleasure to meet the Republicans of North Carolina, in Raleigh, on Wednesday, and to say something to them in behalf of Grant and Colfax. From all I can learn I am impressed with the pleasing conviction that without foreign aid you can give them the electoral vote of your State. My business engagements forbid my leaving Georgia at this time on any account. I must content myself with thanking you for the kind invitation extended me, and wishing you the fullest success on the 3d of November. When that eventful day shall have passed, I can but believe, despite the passion and prejudice that mar the present time, we shall emerge from the murky atmosphere that now envelopes us, to the clear sunlight of peace. Weary of the gloomy retrospect, perpetually presented to the political vision by the architects of Southern ruin and humiliation, our people will at last turn to the more agreeable future. To be thrown back and to occupy the position they did at the overthrow of the Confederacy, cannot be the sober desire of the staid men of North Carolina.

With sentiments of high regard, I am your obedient servant, JOSHUA HILL.

THE iniquities of our tax system, which heaps burdens upon the poor and leaves the rich to go free, were exemplified in the case of the late Mr. Edwin A. Stevens. Being a millionaire and a bloated bondholder, he was, of course, almost wholly untaxed. It only cost $5,000 for Government stamps, for instance, to have his will admitted to probate.—N. Y. Tribune.

Political Items.

Mr. Maddock, the Democratic candidate for Congress in Nebraska, at the late election, is now in Washington, very active for Grant.

Senator Kellogg, of Louisiana, says that State is as sure for Grant as Ohio, while the Arkansas Senators declare Arkansas as sure on the same side as Vermont.

Senator Willey has no doubt that West Virginia will vote for Grant, though the contest is bitter, owing to the fact that the ex-rebels openly perjure themselves in order to get on the registry.

General Stokes, of Tennessee, says that the majority for Grant in that State will be fifty thousand at least, and that every Congressman will be a Republican.

Senator Abbott, of North Carolina, says that State will give at least twenty-five thousand for Grant, and that the rebels will not get a Congressman.

The Zanesville Courier says: Chief Justice Chase has written a letter to a friend in that city, in which he strongly urges the claims of Grant and Colfax, and avows himself strongly in favor of their election.

"Blair," said a cautious but incorrigible Democrat, the other day, "is good as far as he goes, but he goes too far!"

Said Henry Stanbery, Ex-Attorney General four years ago, "When you come to vote, ask what candidate Jefferson Davis and the rebels would wish elected, and vote against that man." We apply that text now. Which, Grant or Seymour, do the Southern Rebels, Cobb, Davis, Ould and their followers favor? Let the people answer, and vote against that man.

The Rebels, captured and paroled and still under their oath, now attempt to dictate to their captors. They tell us that it is the duty of the North, if we love the Constitution, to secure the election of Seymour and Blair. How long, in the annals of the world has it been since paroled Rebels teach their captors?

Something to Consider.

When a Democrat commences whining about oppressive taxation, just ask him who inaugurated and fought the war which made those taxes necessary.

When they prate of their devotion to the Constitution, ask them who fought four years to destroy that instrument and set up the bastard Montgomery concern in its place.

When they talk of their loyalty, ask them who nominated and voted for a banished traitor for Governor of Ohio.

When they profess to be in favor of a restoration of the Union, ask them who has steadily voted against the readmission of the revolted States.

When they claim to be in favor of peace and prosperity, ask them who proposes to overturn the reconstructed State Governments and inaugurate another war.

When they claim that Seymour was loyal during the war, ask them who made it necessary to withdraw an army from the front to suppress his riots in the rear.

When they say that Grant is no statesman, ask them how it is that in all the important positions he has held, he has never made a mistake.

When they say he is not a good soldier, ask them how it was that he so thoroughly "cleaned out" Lee, Johnson, and all the other distinguished Democrats.

THE consolidated exhibit of the savings banks of Maine shows that the number of depositors is equal to one-fourth of the whole deposits are invested in Government bonds. Working men that have a bank account do not generally vote with the Democratic party and those who own Governments—the best stocks in the market—never do.

DR. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS

Are the most efficient and most popular Diuretic medicine known, removing at once any obstruction of the Kidneys, subduing Inflamation and strengthening the Urinary Organs.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Have been in use 35 years, and are daily performing wonderful cures. In many instances where patients were unable to walk upright or to rise without assistance, they have been relieved by a single dose.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Cure all diseases of the Urinary Organs, the symptoms of which are weakness and pain in the back and loins, pains in the joints, difficulty in voiding the urine, general debility, &c.

THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &C.,

Are those organs through which most of the waste or worn out particles of the body passes; these worn out and dead particles are poisonous, consequently when these organs are diseased the whole system becomes deranged, and if not relieved at once the result may be fatal.

This much esteemed and most efficient medicine is the only diuretic that is put up in the shape of Pills, and is much more easily taken than the ordinary diuretic draughts, the Pills being sugar coated

HAS SUMMER ENFEEBLED YOU?

Nine out of every ten to whom this question is addressed, if they answer it candidly, will answer it in the affirmative. Some may reply to it from a sick bed; others, of a stronger constitution and greater powers of endurance, may only experience a slight lassitude as the consequence of the torrid season. But some portion of the vitality of all human beings oozes out of them under the pressure of great and continuous heat, and the sooner the loss is completely repaired, the less susceptible will the system be to the unhealthy influence of the Fall malaria.

The most genial and wholesome tonic that has ever been offered to man—as a means of recruiting his exhausted strength, and fortifying him against the attacks of disease—is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Taken at this season it is a perfect safeguard against intermittent fever, bilious affections, and all the epidemics which follow close upon the expiration of the Summer. It is an invigorant and alterative without any of the drawbacks which attach to mere stimulants, and is the only preparation of the kind which a conscientious physician would feel inclined to prescribe for ladies in delicate health. Nothing can be more pure, more harmless, more certain to restore the vigor of the system permanently and thoroughly, without exciting the pulse or the brain.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no donut whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is enriched by some of the most valuable plants and herbs known to be useful and curative in all deteriorated states of the human blood, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable, and so mostsurely fatal. Let any one afflicted with any pulmonary disease try but one bottle, and they will be convinced of the value of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at Dr. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 140 Wood st.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, September 23, 1868.

The immense short sales of gold yesterday, based on better quotations from London, brought the market down from 143¾ to 142¾; to-day the market is at a standstill, and whatever the ultimate tendency may be, a reaction from these low figures is inevitable. All the bulls have turned bears until an advance is apparent, when all are anxious to cover their shorts, and try to make a turn by buying before the market has materially advanced. The tendency of the market for the present is decidedly bearish, although gold is scarce in the market, and it may soon command a premium for loaning.

Bonds are continually reported as strong and advancing, yet the sales are small, and, besides 1862 bonds no actual investment demand exists.

Stocks are firmer this evening, and all the different Railroad shares are on the rise. The cliques have resorted to their old practice of taking up one class of securities and then another, and thus raise the entire list.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 143; Eighty-one's, 114½; Five Twenties, 1862, 114⅝; do, 1864, 110½; do, 1865, 111½; do, 1865, new, 108⅞; do, 1867, 109; do, 1868, 109¼; Ten Forties, 104¾; Railroads—Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 88¼; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 103¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 102¾; Chicago & North Western, 88; do Preferred, 88⅞; Michigan Southern, 84½; Reading, 94¾; Erie, 48⅝; New York Central, 127⅞; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 29; Western Union Telegraph Co., 34¾; Adams Express Co., 51¾; Merchants Union, 24. Mining shares—Gregory, 4,35; Corydon, 12; Quartz Hill, 1,00; Smith & Parmalee, 4,90; Quicksilver, 22¼.

—The Fort Wayne Company have declared their usual quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent., payable on the 15th of October.

—The Oil Creek and Allegheny River Railroad announces another quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent., payable free of tax on the 1st proximo.

—The Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad announces a quarterly dividend of two per cent., free of tax, payable on the 10th of October, at New York.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.: Gold, 143; United States Sixes, 1881's, 114⅜; 5-20's, 1862, 114⅞; 5-20's, 1864, 110½; 5-20's, 1865, 111⅛; 10-40's, 104¾; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 109; 5-20's, January and July, '67 109¼; '68, 109¼; June 7-30's, par less ¼; July 7-30's, do ¼; August 119; Sept., 119; Oct. 118½; Union Pacific Railroad, 102; Central, 103.

GRANT'S THE MAN!

BY P. P. BLISS.

Hear the mighty shout arise, "Grant's the man,
Grant's the man!"
East and West, th watchword flies,
"Grant's the very man!"
Freedom's cause must ever stand,
Right, triumphant, rule the land,
Who will take the ta k in hand?
Grant's the very man!

CHORUS—
Then rally for your leader, boys, rally for the fight,
Rally for the flag, boys, rally in your might,
Buckle on your aproas, we've a few more hides to tan,
Rally for your leader, boys,
Grant's the very man!

Who withstood the Vicksburg hail? Grant's the man,
Grant's the man.
Who at Richmond did prevail?
Grant's the very man!
Who, when older ones looked blue,
Vowed he'd put the matter through?
Who made every word come true?
Grant's the very man!

CHORUS—
Who will to the White House go? Grant's the man,
Grant's the man!
Who rebellious schemes o'erthrow?
Grant's the very man!
Who will tan the K. K. K.'s?
Who Columbia's banner raise?
Who receive the nation's praise?
Grant's the very man!

LETTERS FROM EUROPE--NO. 10.

A Visit to the Tomb of Napoleon the First.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SEPTEMBER 4, 1868.

Among all the varied and interesting things that are to be seen in Paris, the Tomb of Napoleon the First is, in our judgment, the finest. It cannot but excite the wonder and admiration of every beholder, no matter what may be his feelings and views concerning him whose mortal remains are enclosed therein. On Thursday, the 20th of July, we made a visit to the tomb, and shall never forget the impression it made upon us. It is open to the public only on Mondays and Thursdays of each week from twelve to three o'clock, when there is free admission, and every one, of every nationality, who chooses, can go and see the spot where lies the dust of one of the greatest military chieftains the world has ever seen. It is interesting not only to see the place itself and its surroundings, but also to look upon the stream of people, the tide of humanity, that flows thither twice each week to see where lie the remains of the great dead. Men of every nationality, of every tongue, of every calling and rank in life are to be seen passing in and out. The American, the Englishman, the German, the French, the Italian, soldiers and civilians, priests and laymen, men and women, young and old, rich and poor, the lady dressed in finest satins and most expensive silks, and the coarsely apparelled mother with child in her arms—all, and at the same time, are around and by the tomb of Napoleon. The crowd of visitors is so great that it is necessary to observe the strictest order in their passage to and from the tomb. Two men in uniform, officials in charge, stand at the head of the stairway to direct the people to go down on the left, pass around and come up on the right.

Remusat said: "Napoleon must have a monument as lasting as his memory." And in his last will and testament Napoleon himself wrote, it is said, these words: "I desire that my ashes may rest on the banks of the Seine, among that French nation that I loved so much." He has, indeed, a lasting monument—one that will endure for centuries; and the request made in his will has been carried out. His ashes repose on the banks of the Seine. Napoleon the First, as is known to all who are in any degree familiar with his history, died in exile at St. Helena, in 1821. In 1842 a movement was inaugurated by Louis Philippe—and at the time it was considered a very generous and liberal movement on his part—by which the remains of Napoleon were brought to Paris, and at enormous expense—an expense borne by the government—a place was fitted and a tomb prepared for them. On the South bank of the Seine, in an open and beautifully shaded spot, there is a large building with open courts, which gives shelter and a home to about 2,000 maimed, old and wounded soldiers. In the rear of this is the Church of St. Louis, the dome of which, built at the commencement of the 17th century, and forming its southern extremity, has been appropriated as a resting place for the "ashes" of Napoleon I.

You pass through a gate in a very high iron fence, and passing along a finely gravelled walk of about one hundred yards in length, with flowers and green sward on each side, you ascend the steps which lead to the dome. As you enter the door, you are struck with the beauty and magnificence of the place. The whole is exquisite in design and grand in execution. It seems to me that nothing could excel it; and one has mingled feelings of solemnity and admiration. You walk on finely wrought mosaic pavement of the time of Louis XIV. The dome above is gorgeously gilded and adorned with splendid paintings. In the dome, (the whole building is called by the French, the Dome,) there are several chapels. Passing in at the main entrance, on your left, is the chapel of Saint Jerome, which contains the tomb of Prince Jerome Bonaparte, composed of a sarcophagus in black marble, supported by bronze "griffinlions;" and on the walls around are six magnificent paintings. In the chapel on the right, in an immense black and white marble tomb, highly polished, are the remains of Joseph Bonaparte. Passing onwards a few paces, you come to a circular marble balustrade immediately beneath the dome proper. It is 18 yards in diameter; and looking over it, and down 12 feet into the crypt your eye rests on the tomb, where lies all that is mortal of the great Napoleon. You are at once impressed with its beauty and collossal proportions. The tomb itself is upwards of of 12 feet long, 6 wide, and 14 feet high, and stands on a green granite base which was brought from the Vosges. It is of red granite from Finland, and was presented by the Emperor Nicholas; it is an "immense monolith" (single stone) "weighing 135,000 pounds, and was polished by a powerful steam engine." The polish is so high that it really glistens. Around the tomb are twelve colossal figures, in marble, equi-distant from each other, representing the Emperor's twelve principal victories, six stands each containing a dozen or more of flags which he took in his battles. Some of these are nearly whole, others are in shreds. The light from the dome above serves in rendering the whole distinctly visible. In the northern extremity of the building is a high altar, and a cross bearing the image of the Savior, before which devout Catholics may be seen kneeling, repeating their prayers and counting their beads. From the four corners of the altar there rise four twisted columns, perhaps twenty inches or two feet in diameter, of black and white marble, the summits of which are connected with a roof like structure, highly finished and richly gilded. The rays of the sun passing through amber glass in the windows, and falling on the gilding, produce a most solemn and soothing effect. There is an under passage that lead from behind the high altar to the crypt, in which is the tomb, but the great brazen door is locked and the present Emperor keeps the key in his own possession. After having given the tomb, and all in the beautiful building that contains it, a careful inspection, your retrace you steps feeling that you have been amply paid for your visit, and conscious that you have seen the grandest and most beautiful tomb in the world.

Catholics on Color.

The Catholics are laboring among the freedmen in Baltimore. In their schools and churches white and black sit together. The priests openly declare the doctrine that "God makes no distinction, and the Church cannot."

Commenting upon the above paragraph, the Cincinnati Catholic Telegraph, the leading organ of the Catholic Church in the West, which is edited by Very Rev. Edward Purcell, a brother of the most Rev. Archbishop Purcell, says:

The above is from the last number of the Presbyterian Witness. When was the writer of that item born—where has he lived? He must have been taking a Rip Van Winkle snooze for some eighteen hundred years. The Catholic Church has always done this. Blacks and whites study and recite and eat side by side at the College of the Propaganda, Rome. There are now seventeen negroes being educated for priests in one institution in Naples. Last year a negro student carried off the highest prize at the Propaganda, Rome. The same equality prevails in her churches throughout the world.

THE American flag which used to be displayed on the steamer that was Gen. Grant's headquarters on the James river, while besieging Richmond, is hoisted on the top of one of the New York hotels, and there, we are told, it is to be kept flying until after the Presidential election.

AUCTION SALES.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE APPETITE FOR

Tobacco Destroyed!

Leave off Chewing and Smoking the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco.

One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION IS WARRANTED to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be. IF IT FAILS IN ANY CASE THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobocco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.

NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.

W. P. HEALD.

[From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.

E. W. ADKINS.

[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and guawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

LEGAL.

IN THE ORPHANS' COURT OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY, Pennsylvania. In the matter of the ESTATE OF DANIEL MORGAN,

Late of Findley township, Allegheny county, No. ——, June Term, 1868. Writ of Partition in Valuation.

To James Morgan, of Columbiana county, Ohio; Emily S. Morgan, widow, and Fannie Morgan, minor child of Jeremiah Morgan, deceased, by her guardian, A. R. Thompson, Georgiana Cook, wife of John L. Cook, Frank L. Morgan, Rush Morgan, Louis N. Morgan, Penina E., intermarried with Joseph Mountjoy, Jefferson Morgan, Chas. Morgan, James Morgan, Grace Ann Morgan, children of Dr. Charles Morgan, deceased, and the said Charles, James and Grace Ann Morgan, being minors, and have for their guardian, John R. Large, Esq., Daniel Ferguson, Emily Weaver, wife of Henry Weaver, Sarah J. Ewing, wife of John M. Ewing, Mary Keefer, wife of Smith Keefer, James A. Ferguson and John M. Ferguson, children of Fanny Ferguson, deceased; George W. Morgan, Betsy E., wife of Elijah B. Martin, Fannie F., wife of John Paullin; John Morgan, Maud M. Morgan, Blanche R. Morgan, Robert W. Morgan and Sarah E. Morgan, children of William Morgan, deceased; the said John, Maud, Blanche, Robert and Sarah being minors, and A. McBride, Esq., guardian ad litem of said children.

You are hereby notified that an Inquisition will be held in pursuance of the above mentioned writ of partition and valuation on the premises, in Findley township, Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, on THURSDAY, the 29th day of October, 1868, at 10 o'clock A. M., to make partition to and among the heirs, &c., of the said deceased in such front, and numbers of Republican mottoes were displayed on the walls.

THE PROCESSION.

The Dispatch building displayed large numbers of flags and lights, tastefully arranged, making a very handsome general effect.

The Chronicle was illuminated very finely, and stretched across the street from the building to Henry Miner's, were graceful festoons of Chinese lanterns, making a very beautiful appearance.

The Mail was very fine, and attracted much attention.

LIBERTY AND PENN.

Hare's Hotel, on Liberty street, was brilliant in the extreme, its entire surface being brightly dotted with lanterns. Hunker's confectionery store was also a bright object of attention. All along the line of the street the bright lights and the red, white and blue were lavishly displayed. Pitcairn's livery stable, opposite the Union Depot, was very fine. The Republican stand at the corner of Penn and O'Hara streets presented an exceedingly beautiful appearance. Above O'Hara, the decorations on Penn street were numerous and beautiful, and the street, to St. Clair, was very brilliant. Few finer decorations were seen than those of Dr. Dickson's drug store. Private residences and business houses along the street were very beautifully ornamented.

ST. CLAIR STREET.

On St. Clair street the scene was exceedingly beautiful. The Fruit House near the bridge was handsomely festooned with lanterns and flags. Howe's Sewing Machine building presented an appearance at once dazzling and tasteful, and attracted great attention. The drug store of Dr. Rankin, near Penn, was decorated with rare taste. A very large flag was festooned in the window, and beneath its folds, mounted on a pedestal, was a handsome bust of the martyr President draped in black. Beneath this was a handsome portrait of Grant, inscribed: "Our next President." The windows of Burchfield's dry goods house were unique and beautiful in arrangements. One of them was hung entirely in black, and contained a splendid portrait of Abraham Lincoln. The other displaying a splendid portrait of Grant was splendidly hung in red, white and blue. The photographic rooms of B. L. H. Dabbs were even more beautiful than usual, flags, lanterns and the national colors adding to the ordinary attractions of the place. Burns & Caugheys' well known drug store was handsomely decorated and elicited the praise of all. The display of fireworks at this point was very fine.

IN ALLEGHENY.

Allgheny evinced her enthusiasm in the cause by welcoming the procession with an illumination, which, for brilliancy and completeness, has never been equaled in her annals. From the time the advance guard of the line left the St. Clair street bridge, and passed up Federal street, it moved through a perfect blaze of light brilliance. Public buildings, hotels and private buildings were all illuminated to an extent hitherto unknown in our sister city, and as the procession passed along it was greeted with vociferous applause. Fireworks were displayed and every demonstration of approval was lavished upon it. On some of the streets the display was particularly fine, among the most noticeable of which was Federal and Lacock streets, and Cedar and North avenue. The display at Gray's Row, on Cedar avenue, and that at the residence of Mr. J. H. Sewall, on North avenue, were exceedingly fine and elicited the highest encomiums from all observers. Time and space both fail us, however, in mentioning in detail all the attractions, and we must content ourselves with merely referring in these general terms to the affair.

RECAPITULATION.

There were in the ranks between eight and nine thousand voters, about one-sixth of whom were mounted. The line of procession was one hour and twenty minutes passing the GAZETTE office, which would show it to be over four miles in length. There were probably thirty thousand people on the sidewalks and at the windows of houses along the route of procession, many of whom came from the country districts to witness the display. Upon the whole it was the most successful affair of the character ever witnessed in Pittsburgh, and will long be remembered as such.

THE CONVENTION TO-DAY

Promises to be a grand success. The forces will rally at 9 o'clock A. M., and will move in regular order through the streets designated in the published route of procession. Many of the distinguished orators announced for the occasion have arrived, and will speak as advertised without fail. Let there be a full and general turnout of the masses.

ACCIDENTS.

Lieut. John Ziegler was struck by a brick on Fulton street and sustained slight injury, the missile glancing off his head.

J. B. Peters, of Birmingham, was thrown from his horse on Penn street, in front of Schmidt & Friday's liquor store, and falling with head downward, sustained serious injury. He was carried into the store mentioned and medical aid summoned.

A little boy was trampled beneath the horses feet on the Monongahela wharf, and was seriously injured, one of his ribs being broken and the calf of his right leg crushed and bruised.

The stick of a rocket struck a lady on the corner of Penn and St. Clair street, badly lacerating her left shoulder. She fainted and was carried into a store near by.

Several persons on foot were struck with stones in the Bull Run District, but we learned of none having being seriously injured. This completes all the casualities we could hear of.

UNIONTOWN, PA.

[Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

UNIONTOWN, Sept. 22, 1868.

Editors Gazette: Your paper being extensively read in this place, I thought a few words relative to the political state of affairs in this vicinity would not come amiss.

The Republicans are making great efforts, and with good prospects of success, to redeem this county from Copperhead rule. "Straight outs" are numerous, the sensible men of the Democratic party are beginning to see the error of their ways, and they are making atonement by joining in the crusade for freedom under that gallant soldier and statesman, Gen. Grant.

The old soldiers cannot vote against the man who led them to so many victories during the rebellion, and who will lead them to a still greater victory at the ballot box next November.

The Democrats are making great exertions to defeat Honest John Covode, the Republican candidate for Congress, but the old "Aligator" has never been defeated yet, and the present aspect of affairs seems to indicate that he will again represent this District, at the Nation's Capitol. The "unterrified" had a procession here last evening, the 21st, but it was too insignificant and disgraceful to deserve even a passing notice.

To-day the colored portion of the community celebrate the Emancipation Proclamation of President Lincoln.

Look out for a large delegation from old Fayette next Wednesday; reserve a place in the procession for them as they wish to take part in the festivities of the occasion.

Attempt to Upset a Train.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONTREAL, September 23.—An attempt was made last night to upset the Grand Trunk train going West, in consequence it is surmised, of Mr. O'Reilly, Crown counsel in the Whalen case being on board. Ties were placed on the track but the down freight train struck them first, one or two cars were badly damaged.

THE CAPITAL.

Battle with Indians—Retrenchment Committee Adjourned—The Case of Surratt.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FIGHTING WITH INDIANS.

WASHINGTON, September 23, 1868.

The following was received at the War Department to-day:

Austin, Texas, September 22.—To the Adjutant General of the United States Army: A detachment of the Ninth Cavalry, from Fort Davis, under Lieutenant Cusick, overtook two hundred Apaches, under Chief Arasarte, and killed thirty and wounded an equal number, and recaptured two Captains and two hundred head of animals. The troops also destroyed their camp and winter supplies. [Signed,]

J. J. REYNOLDS, Major General.

SURRATT CASE.

After the conclusion of the arguments in the Surratt case to-day, Judge Wylie reviewed the case and said: "As it has been presented, the offence as charged in the indictment amounten to giving aid and comfort to the enemy by entering into a conspiracy to abduct and murder the late President Lincoln. The offense was a misdemeanor and not a felony at common law. It was not reason according to the definition or other felony, and therefore was not covered by the President's proclamation of pardon and amnesty of July last. The Court, for reasons elaborately set forth, sustained the demurrer of the District Attorney to a plea of counsel for defendant. Mr. Merrick, for prisoner, asked leave to amend the plea to put it in better shape to meet the technical objections of the Court, in order that it might stand in proper condition for review. This request was granted by the counsel for the Government and Court. Judge Wylie said counsel for defendant must be ready with the amended plea to-morrow morning, as he desires to go to work on the trial.

ADJOURNED.

The Retrenchment Committee in session this morning at the Treasury Department, concluded the investigation and adjourned to meet on Thursday of next week in New York. Assistant Attorney Ashton was before the Committee.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. HATCH.

General Hatch of the Freedmen's Bureau, for Louisiana, arrived here to-day accompanied by Generals Howard and Hadon, and held an interview with the Secretary of War relative to the condition of affairs in his district.

PERSONAL.

General Meade is here on his way South. He had a long interview with Mr. Schofield in which the subject of the Camilla riot came under consideration. General Meade leaves to-morrow for Atlanta.

THE INDIANS.

U. S. Troops Attacked by Indians—Colonel Forsythe with Fifty Men Surrounded—Two Men Killed and Twenty Wounded.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FORT WALLACE, Ks., Sept 23.—Two scouts from Col. Forsythe's command, who have been scouring the country towards the headquarters of Republican river, arrived here last night. They left Forsythe's camp on the Dry Fork, on the Republican, thirty-five miles from the mouth, and ninety miles north of here four nights ago, and report that on the morning of the 17th the Indians tried to run off a portion of their stock, and half an hour later three or four hundred appeared on the bluffs two miles off, and made a dash for the camp.

Colonel Forsythe, having only fifty men, crossed them to Small Island, and the Indians commenced firing on him, which they kept up steady and fast until eleven o'clock, after which only scattering shots until three o'clock, when they again opened a steady fire and with an increased force, their number being estimated then at seven hundred. The fight kept up in this manner until sundown, when the Indians made a desperate charge to take the camp but were unsuccessful. They, however, kept up the fight until eleven o'clock, at which time scouts left for Ft. Wallace to obtain aid. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through Indians to get out at daylight. They heard firing back at the camp, seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are Col. Forsythe, left leg broken by ball, and shot through right thigh; Lieutenant Beecher shot in several places supposed to be dying, as his back was broken and he begged the men to kill him. A. Moore shot in the head while dressing Col. Forsyth's wound; two men killed, twenty wounded. All the stock of the command were killed and the men were living on horse flesh. The scouts had but 1½ pounds to last them into Fort Wallace. The party has sixty-five rounds of amunition left and were fortifying. The scouts could only travel nights on account of the danger, the Indians being seen every day. On learning Col. Forsythe's condition, Col. Bankhead commanding this post sent out one hundred men with provisions, ammunition, etc., to his relief, and also scouts to Col. Carpenter who was supposed to be about forty-five miles West of here with his company, to proceed to Col. Forsythe's assistance. A scout came in at ten o'clock this morning and reported Col. Carpenter far on his way.

Gen. Bradley, from Fort Sedgwick, on his way to the Forks of the Republican was supposed to be in the vicinity with two companies of cavalry and three of infantry, and it was confidently expected by General Sheridan that they would come up in time as they were on his route.

LATER, 8 P.M.—General Nichols has just arrived from Fort Reynolds. He reports Lieut. Beecher dead, Dr. Moore mortally wounded and dying, and Col. Forsythe nearly as bad. All are lying there with the Indians all around them eating their horses' flesh and waiting patiently for relief. Colonels Bankhead and Carpenter will reach them to-night.

U. S. Marshal Resisted—Ku-Klux Murderers.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, September 13.—Deputy United States Marshal Thomas, of this district, while attempting to arrest some parties in Dunklin county, charged with illicit distilling, some days ago, was resisted by fifteen armed men and forced to retreat.

A Little Rock, Arkansas, dispatch to the Democrat says: Captain Simpson Mason, President of the Board of Registration, of Fulton county, was assassinated on the 19th by the Ku-Klux. One negro in Lewisburg and three in Columbia county, have been killed recently, and several negro churches burned by the same order.

Georgia Legislature.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAVANNAH, Ga., September 23.—The Senate took up as vetoed the Augusta municipal election bill and passed it over the veto by a vote of twenty-four to eleven. In the House Mr. Bryant, Republican, moved to reconsider the action of the House, yesterday, in adopting the majority report of the Committee appointed to investigate the late difficulty between the whites and blaks at Camilla. The motion was lost by a large vote.

Oregon Legislature.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, September 23.—The Oregon Legislature adopted a resolution thanking General Crook for services in Eastern Oregon, by which the Indian depredations were stopped. Also a memorial to Congress to aid by money and law in building a branch of the Union Pacific Railroad from the vicinity of Salt Lake to the navigable waters of the Columbia, thence by Portland to Puget Sound.

FROM EUROPE.

The Chinese Embassy—Speech of the American Minister at Leeds—The Spanish Insurrection—Proposed Peace Congress—Danger from Fenians Passed Away.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, September 23.—The Standard this morning has an article on the Chinese Embassy, which had just arrived. It comments on the public indifference to the Embassy in England as contrasted with the enthusiasm with which they were everywhere received in America, and says that all the Ministers have to do is to see that they have genuine Commissioners to deal with, and not merely foreign mediators between England and China.

Mr. Reverdy Johnson, American Minister, in reply to an address presented by the Town Council of Leeds, Saturday, said there were but few differences between England and the United States and these were unimportant because they could be amicably adjusted without tarnishing the honor of either country. He hoped for a speedy settlement of these differences and should devote all his energies to that end. He would regret that if either in coming to an agreement should suffer in its own opinion or that of the world. The United States would certainly do nothing to detract from its own reputation, and he knew that Great Britain would not tarnish her honor.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—It is announced today that the sessions of the proposed Peace Congress will be held at Berne.

LIVERPOOL, September 23.—Letters from Egypt report the yield of cotton in that country this year to be enormous.

SPAIN.

LONDON, September 23—Evening.—Dispatches received here this evening state that the insurgents have issued a proclamation which says that when they are victorious their future course relative to the government of the country will be decided by universal suffrage. The insurgents are reported to have attacked Madrid, which is defended by a barricade, but no particulars have been received. The city of Saragass is actively preparing defenses against an anticipated attack by the rebels.

LONDON, September 23, 9 P. M.—The following news from Madrid is official: Gen. Novalichez, of the Royal Army, at the head of a large force, has gone to Andalusia. Troops have also been sent to Santando.

The following additional news has been received from Spain: The fortified town of Santonio, in the Province of Santanda, has pronounced for the revolutionists. The railroads and telegraph lines in the Southeastern part have been cut and rapid communication is destroyed. The excitement at Madrid is increasing.

IRELAND.

DUBLIN, Sept. 23.—The Aldermen and Councilmen of this city have passed a resolution setting forth that as all danger from the Fenian movement has passed away, the time has now come for the release of imprisoned Fenians.

AUSTRIA.

TRIESTE, September 23.—The officers in port of the Austrian Navy to-day tendered a banquet to Admiral Farragut. Speeches were made and much enthusiasm was manifested.

FRANCE.

PARIS, Sept. 23—The Moniteur to day, in an article on the speech of King William, delivered at Luneburg, says his words show his faith in peace.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LONDON, September 23.—Evening.—Consols, 94¾; Illinois, 91¼; Erie, 32¾; 5-20's, 83¾.

FRANKFORT, September 23.—Bonds firmer, at 76.

LIVERPOOL, September 23.—Cotton easier but not lower; sales of 1,000 bales Middling Uplands, 10d.

LONDON, September 23.—Calcutta Linseed, 62. Sugar 26s, on spot; 25s 6d to arrive.

ANTWERP, September 23.—Petroleum 51½.

NEW YORK CITY.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 23, 1868.

The steamship Mississippi sailed for South America to-day. Among her passengers was Minister McMahon, bound to the Argentine Republic.

A dispatch received to-day from the end of the track announces the completion of another section of the Union Pacific Railway, making 820 miles in operation.

Warren, Whipple and Turner's Detective Agency of this city, have unearthed a stupendous swindle, originating here under the title of the Brooklyn Steamship and Emigrant Company. The one thousand dollar bonds which constitute the frauds, thousands are in circulation in all parts of the country, many having gone to California, and the Southern and middle States. Many persons in Virginia have been extensively swindled by land speculations, through using these bonds, besides numbers in the Eastern and Western States.

One thousand dollars were stolen from an express wagon on Courtland street to-day.

A woman named Emma Barclay was arrested and sent to Boston to answer a charge of abducting a young girl from that city for nefarious purposes.

The second colored battalion of Massachusetts, concluded an excursion here to-day, by a drill, and returned home by a Sound steamer. Several thousand negroes were at the pier to witness their departure.

The brig John Armstrong arrived last night from Curacoa, after a passage of twenty days, with a crew of six men. The captain, James Kent, died in the hospital after nine days sickness, from yellow fever, and some of the seamen also died from the same disease. Before sailing the vessel's first mate, Charles McKenzie, who was in command, was taken sick, September 5th and died on the 8th of black vomit. Ninety men from a Dutch man-of-war, lying in the harbor, had died of yellow fever within the last three months, and other vessels had lost a portion of their crews from the vomit. The town of Curacoa, and especially the shipping, were in a most unhealthy state.

A woman named Bridget Dankley, principal of the public school, number 9, of Brooklyn, has been arrested for brutally and inhumanly beating a little scholar, a girl of less than eight years, to such a horrible degree that the little sufferer died in convulsions a few hours affer.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

—Three negroes yesterday were admitted to the bar of South Carolina, at Columbia.

—Wm. B. Washburne has been re-nominated for Congress by the Republicans of his district.

—Samuel Hooper has been re-nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Fourth Massachusetts district to-day.

—The establishments of Burden & Sons and E. Corning & Co., in Troy, New York, fully resumed work yesterday. The stoppage continued four month, occasioned by a strike.

—Governor Smith and five Republican members of the Alabama Legislature, left Montgomery yesterday for Washington city, with a memorial to the President asking for troops.

—A fire broke out in the Peoria Pottery Works, Peoria, Ill., yesterday morning. In a short time the whole building was burned to the ground. It was the largest establishment of the kind in the State, and was valued at $125,000. Insurance between $40,000 and $50,000.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

Company "A" Grant Hussars will meet, mounted, ready for parade in front of Hare's Hotel, at nine o'clock this morning, sharp.

Evangelical Lutheran Synod.—The Pittsburgh Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church will hold its twenty-fifth annual Convention in the Lutheran Church, corner of Peach and Eleventh streets, Erie, beginning on Wednesday, September 30th, 1868, at nine o'clock A. M. The Synod will be in session about one week, during which time there will be religious services every evening.

Body Found.—The body of Wm. Pan, who, it will be remembered, was drowned on the 15th inst., in the Monongahela river, near the Suspension bridge, was recovered yesterday at twelve o'clock in the Ohio river, near the mouth of Saw Mill Run. It was removed to Aiken's, on Fourth street, where an inquest was held by Alderman Donaldson. The jury returned a verdict of accidental deowning. The deceased was thirteen years of age, and resided with his parents at Mt. Washington.

Presentation of Colors.

Last night the Second Ward Grant Club, the pioneer organization of the character in the United States, were made the recipients of a princely present from the ladies' of that ward, in the shape of a beautiful and costly silk flag. The ceremony took place at the residence of Thomas Steel, Esq., the entire Club being present in uniform and accompanied by a brass band. General J. Bowman Sweitzer made the presentation speech and was responded to in behalf of the company in a patriotic and happy speech by Capt W. B, Cook. The flag is a beautiful one, and cost over one hundred dollars. It reflects much credit to the spirit of the ladies who got it up as well as to the generosity of the donors.

In Earnest.

The friends of the Monongahela Valley Railroad are in earnest and the construction of a road through a beautiful, rich and fertile valley may now be considered a fixed fact. A number of the stockholders met Thursday afternoon at the office of John F. Bennett, No. 108 Smithfield street, and the sum of eleven thousand dollars, being one-tenth of the subscriptions to the amount required to obtain the charter, was paid into the hands of T. W. Briggs, temporary Treasurer, and by him deposited with Thomas Fawcett, President of the Central Bank. The necessary certificate of the surveyed length of road, signed by T. B. Stilley, the Engineer, and application to the Governor of the State, signed by six of the corporators, was then prepared, and Captain Briggs being appointed, took them last evening to Harrisburg to secure the charter of the road.

What Aided in the Success of Last Night's Demonstration.

That the torchlight demonstration of last night was the brilliant success it proved to be, is due in a great degree to the business foresight and energy of Mr. John W. Pittock, opposite the Postoffice. In the past week he has had between fifty and sixty seamstresses employed in the manufacture of flags, banners, guidons, capes and caps, while he has exhausted the resources of our turning establishments in the production of lamps. In the caps and capes he purchased the oil cloth from the factories, and was thus enabled by manufacturing himself to meet the tastes of the different clubs. During the past week he has supplied to Grant and Colfax clubs four thousand nine hundred outfits. His sales of flags of different styles, from the miniature banner to the thirty foot flag, amounted to over thirty thousand: of Chinese lanterns he sold between ten and fifteen thousand. With these statistics in view, the reader will have no difficulty in appreciating the extent of last night's jubilee.

Mr. Pittock has still a large supply of campaign goods on hand. In two hours notice he can equip five hundred tanners with cap, cape and torch.

Grand Republican Demonstratioh at New Castle.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Sept. 22, 1868.

This is the grandest political day ever witnessed in Lawrence county. Notwithstanding the unpropitious condition of the weather, early in the forenoon the delegations from various townships began to come in, decorated with badges, mottoes, banners and other devises. By noon the spacious streets were literally overflowing. The larger part of the houses, public and private were tastefully decorated, and added greatly to the general effect. So much enthusiasm and heartiness was never before witnessed.

Mettings were held in the afternoon and evening to unprecedented concourses of people.

Ex-Governor Tod of Ohio, and Ex-Governor Curtin of Pennsylvania, were the chief attraction among the speakers. These were supplemented by Gen. John W. Fisher of Lancaster, W. H. Burleigh, Esq., of New York, Hon. Thomas Marshall and Mr. F. B. Penniman of Pittsburgh, who discussed the issues involved in the canvass in a comprehensive and exhaustive manner.

The aggregate vote of this county will be largely increased over the poll of four years ago, in consequence of the increase of population. This increase may be safely estimated at 600 votes at the lowest. But the Republican majority will be full 2,200 in October. Lawrence county is full in the Republican faith, and will do its share towards the election of Grant and Colfax.

Continuance of Great Sales.

At Smithson & Cos., Nos. 55 and 57 Fifth avenue, the balance of the late consignment from the East, consisting of the entire stock of the Bankrupt and Forced Sheriff's Auction Sale, purchased at less than half the cost of the goods, is still being sold at only ten per cent. advance, making the prices easy and suitable to all. The above stock consists of complete as, sortments of Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, Balmorals and Brogans, for Misses, Gents, Youths and Boys wear, in endless style and variety. They also offer for sale Carpets of every texture, and a choice selection of Dry Goods. Remember the place—Masonic Hall Auction Emporium—Nos. 55 and 57 Fifth avenue.

The McClintock Property, East Liberty.—The handsome property of Jonas R. McClintock, in the Twenty-second ward, formerly East Liberty, at the junction of Pennsylvania avenue with the Greensburg pike, has been laid out into a well arranged plan of 134 lots, with wide avenues, to be sold on the premises by auction next Tuesday afternoon. This is one of the very best locations within the city, and so well known to all our readers that we need not speak further. For particulars see McIlwaine's auction advertisement.

The Convention To-Day.—Persons in the city to-day for the purpose of attending the Convention, should improve the opportunity by calling at the office of Croft & Phillips, No. 139 Fourth avenue, and obtain a copy of the Pittsburgh Real Estate Register. Farmers contemplating the sale of their farms will find the Register a superior advertising medium. Remember it is the only work of the kind in the city, and the circulation is gratuitous.

Notice Extraordinary.

The Weed Sewing Machine Company take special pride in announcing, after more than two years of patient thorough research and unremitting labor, the successful completion of their new manufacturing machine. The principle in its construction is new, novel and entirely unknown in its application to such an instrument, and will excite the curiosity, as it must challenge the admiration of every sewing machine critic and lover of mechanical art. It has neither "cane," "cog wheel," "compound lever," or a succession of "revolving cranks,"—runs almost noiselessly, with the least speed, has a capacity of nearly twenty inches under the drum, is of immense power, and destined, they fully believe, to create as great and favorable a sensation as has their new "Family Favorite," whose history has been one continual series of triumphs since its advent and first public appearance as a competitor with others at the Great Paris Exposition in June, 1867, where it was justly awarded the highest medal bestowed upon American Family Sewing Machines. But it is no stranger to this community and encomiums of ours are superfluous.

The New Manufacturing Machine, as well as the "Family Favorite" are always on exhibition to everybody at the Agency at 112 Grant Street.

Advice That Should Be Heeded.

We desire to call the attention of the afflicted to the merits of Roback's Blood Pills, a purely vegetable cathartic, free from mercury and all mineral poisons, and undoubtedly the best remedy extant for the radical cure of nervous and sick headache, bilious disorders and all affections of the Liver and Blood. They are, as their name indicates, a Blood Pill; they search the blood for disease and strike at the very root, thereby effecting not temporary but permanent cures. As a purgative, they are all that can be desired, being mild and safe in their operation and unquestionably one of our most satisfactory Cathartic Pills, and should be kept in every household, and, when taken in conjunction with Roback's Blood Purifier, are unequalled for curing Scrofula, Skin Disease, Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Dyspepsia, Erysipelas, Tumors, Eruptions, and all diseases arising from a disordered state of the blood or a disorganized state of the system. Try these medicines and you will never regret it. Ask those who have used them, and they will tell you they are the best of medicines. Sold by all druggists everywhere. TTST

The Diamond Front.—The citizens of Allegheny are all, doubtless, aware of the many advantages offered to housekeepers and others, who are in want of first-class articles of groceries, at the original Diamond Front, No. 164 Federal street, Allegheny. The large and frequent sales of this establishment prevent the possibility of goods becoming stale on the hands of the firm, consequently customers are always sure of receiving a fresh and first-class article. It is only necessary for those who are not acquainted with these facts to visit the establishment and see for themselves.

The Gormley Homestead on Centre Avenue.—This fine piece of property will be sold, on the premises, next Monday afternoon, by A. McIlwaine, Auctioneer. It is divided into seven large lots, two of which embrace the excellent improvements. The situation is one of the finest in Minersville, now Pittsburgh; seated on Centre avenue, already a leading avenue of our city. For particulars see McIlwaine's auction advertisement.

Don't exclude the light of day; let it diffuse itself in the variegated colors which adorn public and private residences in the shape of stained and enameled glass, such as Page, Zellers & Duff now manufacture at reasonable rates.

Blinds do not soften, they blur the light. But, however strong the light, it is easily softened and subdued by employing enameled or stained glass. Page, Zellers & Duff, No. 8 Wood street, make the very best article in the country.

Home Industry, if it would thrive, must prove itself worthy. Page, Zeller & Duff's enameled, stained and ground glass requires no endorsement—it speaks for itself.

Who Made War?

Oh, Copperhead, why continue to insult the common sense of mankind by the continued iteration and reiteration of the threadbare and profitless lie that the "Republican party brought on the war." Mr. Lincoln was elected in November, 1860. He was not inaugurated until March 4, 1861. As a private citizen he could not, between the above dates, wage war much. But see what the rebels, encouraged by Northern Democrats, did meanwhile:

They captured Fort Moultrie and Castle Pinckney December 20.

Took Fort Pulaski January 3.

Seized the Mount Vernon arsenal, Alabama, with 200,000 stand of arms January 2.

Seized Fort Morgan, Mobile, January 4.

Fired on the Star of the West going to provision Sumter, January 9.

Captured Forts Jackson and St. Phillip, below New Orleans, January 10.

Captured Pensacola Navy and Fort McRae, January 14.

Took Baton Rouge arsenal, January 18.

Seized New Orleans mint and Custom House, January 20.

Seized Little Rock arsenal, February 2.

So Mr. Lincoln found a war already made to his hands as soon as he took his place in the office to which the people had called him—war full-grown and lusty. He had his choice to do his duty as the Executive head of the Republic, or lie down in his tracks and let his country die. He was about as much responsible for the war as for the massacre of St. Bartholomew. Copperhead, you know this; then why lie so?

Alabama Democracy.

The Democracy of Franklin county, Alabama, at a late meeting, passed the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we regard the laws of Congress, known as the "Reconstruction Acts," as unconstitutional, unjust and tyrannical, and subversive of every principle of republican liberty, and we distinctly avow now that, submitting under protest to an inexorable necessity, we will use all the lawful means in our reach to free ourselves from this great wrong.

Resolved, That we denounce as false and slanderous the charge that we desire to reenslave the black race; on the contrary, we pledge ourselves to protect them in the peaceful enjoyment of life, liberty and property, and to aid them in all proper efforts to educate and elevate their race. But we wish them distinctly to understand that any attempt on their part to enforce a claim to social or political equality, will be considered a declaration of hostility to us, and will be resisted to the last extremity.

THE STATE FAIR.—The Harrisburg Guard says: As the time approaches for holding the Fair of the State Agricultural Society, we are glad to hear that the number of applications for the admission of stock, grain and manufactures of all descriptions, far exceeds those made by exhibitors at any similar exhibition held in this State, for many years previous.
